HIGHLIGHTS OF OPERATIONS

The planned capacity expansion in the Linear Alkyl Benzene plant and Caustic Soda plant were completed during the last quarter of March 2026.

Linear Alkyl Benzene (LAB), the major product, continued to be the key contributor for the bottom line. Despite the commissioning of a new 120 KTPA greenfield LAB plant in Saudi Arabia by Farabi, LAB supply situation remained tight globally, as several facilities underwent periodic maintenance during the year. This supply tightness, together with relatively stable raw material costs through the first three quarters of FY 2025-26, supported stronger domestic prices and improved margins.

The imposition of anti-dumping duty on imports of LAB from Qatar & Iran for a period of 5 years, commencing from June 23, 2025, also marginally supported the domestic LAB prices.

Shutdown of LAB plant which was originally planned for a period of 60 days, was extended by nearly a month due to unforeseen execution delays. However, the plant was commissioned and with production commencing during the 1st week of March 2026, the Company was able to meet the pent-up demand triggered by reduced imports consequent to closure of Hormuz straits following the Iran-Israel war. Thus, despite the expansion-related shutdown resulted in production and sales below budgeted levels, the higher net realisation contributed to a bottomline exceeding the budgeted levels.

NP sourcing was also a challenge as most manufacturers relied on in-house NP production for LAB, and market availability contracted significantly while prices surged, creating a supply vacuum. Your Company's strategic decision to import a substantial quantity of NP in Q3 mitigated this risk and prevented sourcing of NP at very high prices amid the geopolitical disruption.

In line with international Crude prices, the Indian crude oil basket remained within a range of USD 63-70 per barrel, before rising sharply to USD 113.5 per barrel in March 2026, amid geopolitical tensions caused by the Iran-Israel-US conflict. Also, tracking of international prices, coupled with prudent decisions on sourcing volumes and inventory level management, facilitated to limit procurement cost & reduce the cost of production.

Consumption of key Raw materials viz., NP & Benzene for LAB was marginally above budget, considering higher system inventory for additional equipment associated with revamped capacity. Power & Fuel for LAB were higher than budget due to unproductive consumption during the revamp shutdown & startup process.

The Caustic Soda prices observed to be fairly stable during the year despite the supply issues in China market and global disruption during Q4.

TPL

The domestic market for PO faced significant challenges due to the influx of lower-priced imported downstream Polyols. As a result, PO offtake became a major challenge since Q3 of FY24-25. However, domestic demand for PO is anticipated to recover commencing from Q2 of FY 26-27.

Your Company maintained its strategy of prudent raw material sourcing, effective inventory management as part of its continued efforts to sustain margins. The revamp of LAB Plant to enhance the production capacity from 120 KTPA to 145 KTPA was successfully completed & commissioned in a safe manner on 11th March 2026. Adsorbent & the associated hardware replacement carried out in NP section of LAB plant had facilitated increase in the captive NP production, to meet much of the intermediate required for expanded LAB capacity. As of 31st March 2026, ₹ 359 Crore was spent against LAB revamp project.

Your Company successfully completed the modernisation of Caustic Soda plant and enhanced its capacity from 150 TPD to 250 TPD. As on 31st March 2026, ₹ 216 Crore was spent against HCD revamp projects. The modernized plant has enabled reduction in Specific consumption of Power for Caustic soda lye production.

As a consequence of the closure of the Strait of Hormuz, and in accordance with the directives issued by the Ministry of Petroleum and Natural Gas (MoPNG) to prioritize sectors, RLNG allocation by Indian Oil Corporation Limited during March 2026 was restricted to 80% of the contracted quantum.

As a responsible corporate entity, in accordance with the developed comprehensive roadmap towards decarbonization, projects such as Air preheater revamp and modification of convection section of fired heaters, to enhance heat recovery from flue gas have been completed. Installation of Waste heat recovery boiler to recover heat from Gas Engine exhaust has been completed and is on the verge of commissioning. Detailed techno-commercial evaluation are in progress to pursue the next in line viable initiatives. The product carbon footprint for LAB and Caustic Soda Lye have been assessed & key initiatives for reduction are being pursued with an intent to make the Company's products more environment friendly. Additionally, renewable power consumption was increased to 92.3% during FY 2025-26 compared to 80% achieved during FY 2024-25, contributing to reduced carbon footprint of Caustic Soda plant.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

During the year under review, your Company operated in a challenging business environment characterized by persistent macroeconomic uncertainties, pricing pressures arising from unabated imports, and elevated raw material costs. These factors adversely impacted the Company's top-line performance.

Revenue from operations for the year stood at ₹ 1466.14 Crore as compared to ₹ 1826.78 Crore in the previous year, representing a decline of 19.74%. The decrease in revenue was primarily attributable to decreased production due to planned shutdown.

Despite the decline in revenue, your Company demonstrated operational resilience and maintained a strong focus on cost optimization, efficiency improvements, product mix enhancement, prudent financial management and strong marketing strategy. As a result, the Company reported a net profit of ₹ 88.76 Crore for the year under review, compared to ₹ 51.43 Crore in the previous year, registering a significant growth of 72.58%.

The improved profitability reflects the effectiveness of the Company's strategic initiatives aimed at enhancing operational efficiencies, optimizing procurement costs, and strengthening overall business performance. The management remains focused on sustaining profitability, improving market competitiveness, and pursuing growth opportunities while maintaining financial discipline.

INDUSTRY STRUCTURE AND DEVELOPMENTS

Linear Alkyl Benzene is a clear, colourless liquid petrochemical intermediate almost exclusively used as the primary feedstock for producing Linear Alkyl Benzene Sulfonate (LAS), the world's most widely used biodegradable surfactant. LAS is a versatile surfactant and is primarily used in the production of household and industrial detergents. It functions as a foaming agent and emulsifier, helping to remove dirt, grease, and stains from surfaces.

The global LAB market expanded reaching approximately 4.7 million tonnes in 2025, with projections indicating a growth rate of 3.23% through 2034, potentially reaching global capacity at 6.4 million tonnes. Increased health consciousness and shifting lifestyles that prioritize cleanliness are some of the factors fuelling this demand. Asia is the world's greatest producer and user of LAB, with the Middle East, China, and India being the top producers.

In 1978, IPCL's Vadodara facility was put into service, marking the beginning of LAB manufacture in India. Reliance Industries Limited, TPL, Nirma, and IOC subsequently built additional production facilities. India's LAB supply and demand situation was largely stable till 2002. However, the supply situation in India greatly outpaced the demand following the completion of two manufacturing plants in the Middle East and another by IOC in India. LAB production capacity expanded globally and before the growth rate could account for the excess supply, additional capacities emerged in the Middle East and Southeast Asia. Consequently, this led to the increase in LAB imports into India. In recent years, the Indian domestic sector has encountered stiff competition due to globalization and legislative changes, including the Free Trade Agreement (FTA). Cheaper imports, primarily from the Middle East, Thailand, China and from Russia, have posed a significant challenge. The Directorate General of Trade Remedies (DGTR) assessed the extent of injury faced by domestic LAB manufacturers, as imports from Qatar and Iran continued to enter the market at significantly lower prices. Based on the recommendations of the DGTR, the Ministry of Finance, Government of India, had approved the case and authorized the implementation of anti-dumping duties (ADD) for a period of five years, effective from 2025 to 2030. The implementation of ADD affected the imports from Qatar significantly close to 50% along with small imports from Iran. The Indian government mandated BIS certification for LAB in the Indian market effective 3rd April 2023.

During the year, a new greenfield 120 KTPA LAB plant was commissioned in Saudi Arabia by another market player. Meanwhile, in Italy, a global major supplier, mothballed its 220 KTPA LAB plant, citing decline in competitiveness due to higher energy costs in Europe.

The UOP Technology, which is widely recognized as the best and most cost-effective manufacturing process available, has been applied by more than 95 percent of all LAB manufacturers, including TPL. Regardless, the cost of making LAB in India exceeds international standards, due to the high cost of essential components such as Energy and feedstock. Domestic firms with standalone units, constantly struggle to compete with offshore suppliers and domestic manufacturers integrated with refineries, who have price advantage by way of cheaper feedstock based on transfer price mechanism.

Caustic soda is an inorganic bulk chemical, strongly alkaline, and odourless, having application in various fields like pulp and paper manufacturing, viscose yarn, staple fibre, aluminium, textiles, soaps & detergent, dyestuffs, drugs and pharmaceuticals, petroleum refining, etc. It is available in two forms, liquid form which is called lye & solid form which is called Flakes or pellets.

In the Indian caustic soda market, segments such as textiles, alumina, inorganics, organics, and paper collectively account for over 60% of the market share. Globally, the demand for caustic soda stands at approximately 84.4 million metric tons per year and is projected to reach 95.9 Million Tons by 2034, exhibiting a CAGR of 1.39% during the forecast period 2026-2034. India contributes to around 7% to this global demand. Despite the energy-intensive production process, the national capacity utilization of the aggregate capacity (approximately 6.4 million tons) is around 78%. New capacities have been established, leading to increased domestic production levels. The price is still witnessing a declining trend due to aforementioned factors.

The production of caustic soda relies on the availability of raw materials, particularly sodium chloride (common salt). Fluctuations in salt production can affect the supply chain and pricing of caustic soda. There is a growing emphasis on adopting green and sustainable technologies in caustic soda production. This trend aligns with global efforts to reduce the environmental footprint of the chemical industry.

Chlorine, a co-product of Caustic Soda, is widely utilized in industries such as Poly Vinyl Chloride (PVC), Chlorinated Paraffin Wax (CPW), pulp and paper, water treatment, chlorinated solvents, and so on. The demand for chlorine in India during the year was approximately 4.5 million metric tons per annum (MMTPA). It is projected to grow at a CAGR of 6.47%, reaching 9.8 MMTPA by 2035.

The demand for chlorine significantly influences chlor-alkali capacity utilization. However, the lack of integrated plants and downstream projects for chlorine utilization poses key barriers to efficient chlorine disposal, ultimately impacting caustic production. Propylene Oxide is a highly reactive, volatile, and flammable liquid used primarily as an industrial intermediate. Globally, over two-thirds of the supply is used to produce polyether polyols for polyurethane plastics, with the remainder processed into propylene glycol, glycol ethers, and fumigants.

PO is produced through the chlorohydrin process or the more environment friendly epoxidation process, wherein propylene reacts with an oxidizing agent. This epoxide compound possesses reactivity due to its strained three-membered ring structure, making it valuable for various applications.

India imports 25 KT of PO annually, primarily from Thailand, Singapore, and Saudi Arabia, at a significantly cheaper cost compared to domestic prices. Due to excess capacity of PO created globally prompting supply excess than demand, some plants are facing economic challenges in Europe and USA. Hence PO prices plummet last one year due to additional capacity and the trend is continuing.

OPPORTUNITIES AND THREATS

The global economy is projected to grow by roughly 3.2% maintaining a steady and modest pace. This growth rate varies significantly by region, with emerging economies expanding faster than advanced nations. The real annual GDP growth for India FY 2025-26 is estimated at 7.6%, higher than the 7.1% recorded in FY 2024-25. Nevertheless India is rapidly advancing to become one of the world's major economies. The country is witnessing unprecedented social and economic development. Recently, India achieved the status of the world's fifth-largest economy, and it aims to surpass the $5 trillion mark by 2027. By the end of this decade (2030), India's economy is expected to touch USD 10 trillion.

Your Company plays an indirect role in the Fast-Moving Consumer Goods (FMCG) industry, which holds immense long-term sustainable business potential in our country. Despite being one of the fastest-growing FMCG markets globally, India's per capita FMCG consumption remains among the lowest, offering significant room for growth. Your Company's operations span two critical FMCG categories – detergents and dishwashing and command over 85% of the South Indian market and turnover. The alignment of profitable business growth with environmental and social responsibility reflects a broader shift in Indian consumer behaviour and regulatory frameworks. Urban centres recovered rapidly post-pandemic, stabilizing supply chains and job markets. City consumers are increasingly shifting toward higher-value, specialized products. Quick-commerce and e-commerce platforms have accelerated urban FMCG distribution and availability.

Consumers are becoming more discerning, seeking superior products, making informed decisions, and demanding brands with a purpose and a point of view. As businesses, we recognize the shifting customer needs and believe that those who contribute positively to people and the environment will thrive in the future. In the LAB market, there is a notable shift from powdered detergents to liquid variants. The preference for liquid detergents arises from their ease of application. These liquid detergents are manufactured using LABSA 96%. As liquid detergent volumes continue to rise, the demand for LABSA 96% has also been increasing.

Post-COVID period, our unwavering focus remained on meeting our customers' growing demands while safeguarding our business model. As economic activities gradually resumed, consumers exhibited a preference for essential necessities over discretionary spending, especially in the context of high inflation.

Growing demand for bio-based surfactants, as well as increased hygiene awareness, are expected to raise demand for detergents and cleansers, boosting the Linear Alkyl Benzene market for surfactant application. Rapid industrialization and urbanisation because of population increase are also predicted to contribute to market expansion. The global market for Linear Alkyl Benzene is profitable, and it is predicted to rise steadily because of key players' expansion, collaboration, and partnership initiatives.

Detergent makers have found it simpler to reach out to rural locations with the use of video marketing. Furthermore, customers have the option of selecting from a large choice of items, thus businesses are continually upgrading their products and attempting to increase their market share through inventive advertising strategies. The LAB business has a lot of room to develop because these companies cater to the bottom of the pyramid consumer. However, India being a desirable market in the Asia Pacific region considering its population and consumption, it is being pursued by global LAB companies, resulting in higher imports to India.

The addition of capacities in the Middle East poses a significant threat to India's LAB industry, as a large portion of output is projected to migrate into the country. Pricing and margins may continue to be influenced by this. This is a challenging macroeconomic climate typified by geopolitical uncertainty, high commodity prices, and lacklustre market growth. Your Company is continually evolving to respond to the threats and forces driving the industry.

Heightened global trade tensions disrupt supply chains. Strong domestic demand acts as an economic buffer. Global supply disruptions often spike commodity prices. Proactive monetary policy prevents these shocks from hardening into core domestic inflation.

Caustic Soda is a key industrial intermediate with numerous applications. The market for Caustic Soda is expected to grow further as demand for Alumina, textiles and apparel increases due to urbanization and increased expenditure on personal care products. The import volume of Caustic is decreasing every year due to surplus domestic capacity. There is a steep increase in exports of Caustic Soda in FY'26 approx at 20%, however imports declined more than 50%. The increase in exports attributed to increase in demand and supply imbalance. Caustic Soda prices increased in FY'26 due to increase in Alumina production along with surge in exports.

The ECH facility's conversion to a PO manufacturing facility has been advantageous in several ways, including the efficient use of an unutilised infrastructure and the creation of a new channel for the beneficial use of chlorine, which has made it possible for the Chlor Alkali Plant to operate continuously.

OUTLOOK

LAB

Soap and detergent demand have risen in recent years because of improved hygiene awareness and a greater emphasis on cleanliness. A shift in lifestyle is transferring a large portion of the population from semi-urban to metropolitan areas, and detergent usage is keeping up demand to climb continuously. Due to heightened awareness of safety and cleanliness during the pandemic, as well as population expansion, demand from the rural market had increased, which is contributing to the growth of LAB. However, it is to be noted that detergent manufacturers are looking at alternatives for LAB which may stagnate the growth of LAB.

TPL

Despite fierce competition from overseas vendors, TPL remains the market leader in the domestic LAB business in South India. Over the previous three decades, TPL has established a reputation as a trusted LAB supplier to MNCs and others.

In September 2022, IOCL debottlenecked its Baroda facility, enabling an additional 20 kt/year of production. Further, the increase in low price imports from Middle East countries was also a concern till FY 2025. The Ministry of Finance, GOI, had imposed Anti-dumping duty on LAB imported from Iran and Qatar for a period of 5 years. The ongoing geopolitical conflicts and global trade barriers improved the demand for native LAB.

The US Iran war commenced by end of February 2026 & gave a significant disruption in the supply of petroleum based feedstocks along with steep increase in the energy price in India. This resulted increase in the price of LAB during March 2026 and supply shortage. Department of Chemicals and Petrochemicals issued a government order to lift BIS temporarily for a period of 6 months starting from 1st April 2026 to ease imports to meet domestic demand. Government of India also withdrawn the customs duty on LAB for a short period of three months starting from 1st April 2026.

Your company is focused on LAB application in other fields, such as crop protection, EOR Polymer, and others, outside from the detergent sector.

CAUSTIC SODA /CHLOR ALKALI

The viability of the caustic soda industry is subject to the potential for chlorine consumption. India does not currently impose anti-dumping duties on the import of caustic soda. Though Indian manufacturers operate at capacity of 78% in Caustic Soda, this year there is surge in the prices. This is due to increase in Exports, higher requirement from Alumina producers and increase in the export price. Caustic Soda production increased close to 9%, however demand only by 6%.

There have been new additions in domestic caustic soda production in the Southern and Western part of this Country. Your company has expanded Caustic Soda Lye capacity using Bi-polar technology and commenced operations in Q4 FY 2025-26. Despite a drop in demand in the textile industry, businesses such as alumina, paper, vinyl, and color intermediates are thriving. However, greater supply than demand in FY 2026, China's return to the export market, and Europe's production normalization will have a significant impact on Caustic Lye prices, with margin erosion projected for Caustic margin-dependent enterprises like us.

PROPYLENE OXIDE

In 2018-19, the Company converted its ECH (Epichlorohydrin) facility to produce Propylene Oxide (PO). This conversion provided an additional option to dispose of chlorine, enabling higher caustic production through the new PO plant. Although the conversion was intended to achieve PO's full captive consumption, PO's consumption decreased later in the year because of the polyurethane market's weak demand. However, the demand is expected to improve in the coming months.

RISK MANAGEMENT POLICY AND PROCESS

Your Company has a structured methodology to effectively monitor and manage the risks by setting up two-employee level Committee and one Board level Committee to identify the risks, suggest mitigation actions and monitor implementation. The employee-level sub-committee has senior personnel from each function and the Apex Committee is headed by the Managing Director with functional heads as other Members. The sub-committee meets on quarterly basis and discuss on various issues that could be perceived as risks and submit its findings to the Apex Committee. The Apex Committee then reviews these issues, identifies the associated risks, and suggests appropriate mitigation actions.

As part of the risk mitigation process, the Board has constituted a Risk Management Committee of Directors, which comprised of Lt. Col. (Retd.) CS Shankar as the Chairman, Ms. Rita Chandrasekar, Mr. S Senthil Kumar and Mr. D Senthil Kumar as its Members. Risk Management Committee of the Board meets periodically to review the risks and the status of implementation of recommended mitigation measures. During the year, the Committee met four times viz. 5th May 2025, 8th August 2025, 7th November 2025 and 3rd February 2026. As required under Section 177 of the Act, the Audit Committee also reviews the risk management process periodically.

RISKS AND CONCERNS

Domestic LAB producers face significant risks, especially due to volatility in feedstock cost which is linked to Crude price. Demand drops during sudden spikes in Crude price, leading to holding of inventory produced with high raw material costs. Alternatively, capacity reduction is resorted in line with muted demand, which again contributes to increased cost of production.

Substantial quantum of processing of Kerosene is required to produce N-Paraffin, the key intermediate product to manufacture LAB & hence domestic LAB producers are entirely dependant on domestic refiners. The domestic refiners, as sole suppliers of feedstock kerosene, keep a substantial mark up over international prices, which contributes to increased cost of production. However, domestic LAB manufacturers are unable to pass on the higher markup, to its customers, as FMCG majors operating globally, adopt a sourcing formula linked strictly to international benchmark prices. This is a concern for domestic LAB manufacturers, who are not integrated with refinery.

Tightening environmental regulations is also adding significant operational compliance cost for local producers.

The acute shortfall in availability of required cut of N-Paraffin at a global level, is a major point of concern, as this can hamper the capacity utilisation of the unit.

Potential raw material shifts citing greener products is driving Refineries to increasingly reallocating kerosene cuts towards producing Aviation Turbine Fuel (ATF). This shift can threaten the long-term supply and can drive up the cost of the N-Paraffin required for LAB production.

Recently commissioned LAB capacity addition in Middle East, & a planned large capacity LAB plant in Africa set to be commissioned in next 4 years timeframe, are expected to divert bulk of the surplus towards Asia. However, with a global CAGR of 3.4% for LAB, the proposed capacity additions are most likely to be absorbed with the increased per capita consumption.

To de-risk the concerns associated with N-Paraffin shortfall, your company is pursuing action to maximize the recovery of N-Paraffin from the existing kerosene allocated by the Refinery, by incorporating necessary modifications to relevant equipment.

As large-scale imports would have an influence on product pricing, addressing the possibility of lower margins would be a prominent issue to manage in the years to come. To mitigate this reduced margin concern due to higher variable cost of production, the company is actively pursuing a power back up option, that will facilitate increased consumption of renewable power through electricity grid at competitive prices, compared to prevailing high cost captive generated power using fossil based fuel source. Although the ADD is in place starting June 2025, the risk of low-priced imports is likely to continue from other manufacturing Countries. Your Company is also looking at more contracts with significant LAB buyers to reduce this risk. Furthermore, reliance on spot markets is kept stable and secure with direct customer committed volumes.

Domestic caustic soda manufacturers in India face a complex matrix of operational and market hurdles, including severe domestic oversupply, volatile global prices, high electricity costs and the persistent crisis of balancing chlorine co-product output. Recent massive capacity additions by major domestic players have outpaced local demand growth. This domestic glut, paired with cheaper imports, has consistently weighed on realisations and compressed EBITDA margins.

Restriction of Propylene to non-essential industrial sector & prioritizing for domestic LPG production, has impacted the Chlorine offtake and in turn the capacity utilization of Caustic Soda Plant. Chlorine offtake is also further impacted, with cheaper imports of Propylene Oxide based downstream products.

To address the concern of Chlorine offtake, which adversely affects Caustic Soda Plant capacity utilization, your organization is actively evaluating viable Chlorine derivative projects for implementation. Also, to reduce the cost of production of Caustic Soda, of which Power is a major input, tie up of additional renewable power at cheaper prices & retirement of costlier existing RE power sources have been done.

TPL

SAFETY, HEALTH & ENVIRONMENT

TPL plants are accredited with International Organization for Standardization (ISO) certificate for Occupational Health & Safety Management System (ISO 45001-2018) and Environmental Management System (ISO 14001-2015) and Quality Management System (ISO 9001-2015).

Your Company continues to utilize tertiary treated city sewage water (for industrial purpose). Regassified Liquefied Natural Fuel (RLNG) is being used as fuel in our process heaters, boilers and power generators. These significant changes reflect our commitment to conserving natural resources and promoting a cleaner environment.

We have already achieved Zero Liquid Discharge for our LAB and Caustic Soda plants by utilizing the treated effluent in the Propylene Oxide manufacturing process. Also, a feasibility study has been initiated to assess the implementation of a Reverse Osmosis (RO) system for the partial recovery and reuse of treated effluent in the PO plant. Furthermore, extensive green belts have been developed and are being maintained in and around Manali and Thiruvallur District.

A Leak Detection and Repair (LDAR) programme is in place to control hydrocarbon (HC) and volatile organic compound (VOC) emissions. VOC and other key emission levels in the environment are regularly monitored. Continuous and online monitoring systems are utilized for both gaseous and liquid emissions to ensure that emission levels consistently remain well below the permissible industrial standards.

Your Company periodically conducts mock drill in all three manufacturing units to ascertain the effectiveness of the safety systems and procedures, in case of an emergency.

In observance of National Safety Day a series of competitions were organized for employees and contract workers to reinforce our commitment to safety. The level of participation from both employees and contract workers was highly encouraging.

Health talks and awareness campaigns have been conducted to enhance health consciousness among employees. Additionally, the Contractors were also included in the Company's periodic health check-up programs.

World Environment Day is observed annually, during which tree plantation drives are conducted as part of our green initiatives to promote carbon offset through the planting of saplings.

POSH awareness sessions conducted periodically to foster a safe work environment for Women and to provide confidence in them to escalate any concerns, without any fear, coercion and discrimination.

Adequate safety standards have been established and are rigorously adhered to, without compromise. All legal and statutory requirements are proactively planned for and fully complied with.

Regular training sessions are conducted for workers to reinforce best practices in safety, environment, and health. Periodic safety awareness programs are organized for contractors and drivers to promote safety.

SUBSIDIARIES

As at the year end, your Company had one Wholly-Owned Subsidiary (WOS) and one Step down Subsidiary (SDS) which were incorporated outside India. The financials of these subsidiaries have been consolidated and the salient features of financial and other information have been furnished in the Consolidated Financial Statement (CFS) attached to this Report.

Certus Investment and Trading Ltd

Certus Investment and Trading Ltd. (CITL), Mauritius was promoted as a Special Purpose Vehicle (SPV) to set up LAB and NP projects in the Middle East and South East Asia. However, due to changed business environment, the projects could not be taken up. At present, the WOS is not carrying on any major activity.

Certus Investment and Trading (S) Private Limited

In the past TPL was exporting large quantity of LAB and importing various materials, such as NP, Benzene, etc. Therefore, CITL, Mauritius had setup CITL, Singapore as a WOS in order to function as a coordinator for TPL's overseas procurement and marketing activities. At present, there are no significant exports or imports and so, the above SDS is not engaged in any activities.

As explained above, the subsidiaries were floated several years ago for specific purposes. Due to change in circumstances and also opportunities opening up in India, it is being examined if other opportunities would be available for the subsidiaries.

HUMAN RESOURCES

Your Company firmly believes that its strength is directly linked to the capabilities of its employees, encompassing knowledge, experience, and decision-making skills. To enhance these attributes and retain talent, various HR initiatives have been implemented, including recognition, empowerment, personality development, decentralization, and delegation of powers. These initiatives aim to create a supportive environment where employees feel valued and motivated. Additionally, a balanced staffing system has been adopted, integrating competent fresh talent alongside experienced personnel, fostering a dynamic workforce that is well-equipped to meet the challenges of the industry. By focusing on employee development and empowerment, your Company is committed to building a culture that promotes growth, innovation, and overall organizational success.

The training needs of employees have been identified at regular intervals through performance appraisal systems, and necessary training is being imparted through in-house and external programs.

The manpower strength as on 31st March 2026 was 437.

26. Material responsible business conduct and sustainability issues pertaining to environmental and social matters that present a risk or an opportunity to your business, rationale for identifying the same, approach to adapt or mitigate the risk along-with its financial implications.

Overview of the entity's material responsible business conduct issues:

S. No.	Material identified issue-risk or opportunity	Rationale for identifying the risk / opportunity	In case of risk, approach to adapt or mitigate	Financial implications of the risk or opportunity (Indicate positive or negative implications)
1	Carbon Emission - Risk & Opportunity	CO₂ emissions contribute to climate change. The carbon footprint of a product directly influences the emissions associated with customers end use application. Failing to meet decarbonization commitments can lead to reputational risks. Organisations across various industry segments are transitioning to cleaner energy sources and consumers are increasingly choosing low-carbon alternatives. The Government of India also has set target for carbon emission reduction by 2070 at Country level and so industries may get targets to reduce.	- Adoption of tangible sustainability initiatives and continuous monitoring. - Create a roadmap for achieving net zero and begin implementing the committed actions. - The implementation process must be timebound and should reduce the carbon emissions in steps towards achieving the final goal.	Some opportunities are economically viable & offer a positive financial return on investment. However, certain initiatives warrant prohibitively high investments with minimal returns, resulting in a negative financial impact.

S. No.	Material identified issue-risk or opportunity	Rationale for identifying the risk / opportunity	In case of risk, approach to adapt or mitigate	Financial implications of the risk or opportunity (Indicate positive or negative implications)
2	Toxic Emissions - Risk	Toxic emissions can cause significant harm to the Company & neighbouring locality, resulting in health hazards, plant downtime, financial losses, legal challenges, reputational damage, regulatory complications etc.	Various features incorporated in design & operational control procedures to prevent Toxic Emissions and to effectively handle potential scenarios of plant upset, to ensure zero emission to environment. 1. Draining is only through closed piping systems to a Recovery drum, which are recovered and recycled back into the process. 2. Venting is directed solely to a closed header for safe disposal via a flare system. 3. Hydrocarbon & Gas detectors are installed at vulnerable areas within the unit, to promptly detect any leakage and to enable immediate corrective actions. 4. Leak Detection and Repair (LDAR) surveys are performed at periodic intervals to detect and rectify fugitive emissions. 5. Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) are established, and appropriate Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) are provided to all employees and Workmen. Periodic safety training sessions are conducted to enhance employee/ workers awareness and preparedness.	Financial implication is adverse, considering the high costs associated with investments in pollution control and monitoring equipment.

S. No.	Material identified issue-risk or opportunity	Rationale for identifying the risk / opportunity	In case of risk, approach to adapt or mitigate	Financial implications of the risk or opportunity (Indicate positive or negative implications)
3	Hazardous Waste and Wastewater management - Risk	Inadequate management of hazardous waste & wastewater can lead to several consequences, including: - Contamination of soil and water resources. - Fines and penalties for regulatory non-compliance. - Increased liability risk due to improper waste disposal. - Increased operational costs associated with the mitigation and remediation efforts. - Closure of facility in the event of gross violations.	Hazardous waste generated is securely stored in designated areas. Valid documentation for authorising generation, storage, transportation and disposal is maintained. Disposal is carried out exclusively through authorized reclaimers. Solid wastes are to be reused and to add value, instead of sending as landfill at a cost and utilization of space. Waste water to be treated and reused for industrial purpose rather than treating and letting out as surface or sea discharge. Annual reports are submitted in compliance with regulatory requirements. Two manufacturing units (LAB and Caustic) are equipped with Zero Liquid Discharge (ZLD) facilities. M/s NEERI is conducting a feasibility study for the implementation of ZLD at Propylene Oxide plant.	The financial impact is negative due to the high operating costs associated with hazardous waste management and the significant investments required for waste recycling. However, there is a positive environmental impact, as wastewater treatment and recycling contribute to the conservation of natural resources.
4	Opportunities in Clean Technology – Opportunity	Adopting clean technology is an opportunity for environmental protection and to remain sustainable. Optimum usage of renewable power and alternatives for fossil based fuels can contribute significantly to a cleaner environment, enhanced energy efficiency and the conservation of natural resources.	The waste gas containing sulphur and other impurities, which can be purified and used as fuel in furnaces, thereby reducing dependency on natural resources. Adoption of new technologies that are cleaner, to be evaluated based on the cost benefit analysis.	Embracing clean technology provides the company with opportunities such as cost savings, regulatory compliance, reputation enhancement and long-term sustainability. These benefits can contribute to the Company's success and competitiveness in a changing business landscape.

S. No.	Material identified issue-risk or opportunity	Rationale for identifying the risk / opportunity	In case of risk, approach to adapt or mitigate	Financial implications of the risk or opportunity (Indicate positive or negative implications)
5	Labour Management - Risk	In today's changing times workforce expectations are constantly changing and Inability to meet with the workforce expectations may impact the Company's retention rate and eventually affect the business continuity, causing reputational risk as well as productivity issues. It is also vital to ensure safe working conditions for the workforce and comply with all safety measures mandated by the regulators. Being in manufacturing industry with huge workforce, it is important to have a welfare monitoring and tracking system. Ineffective labour management can result in reduced productivity, due to disputes and strikes and may cause damage to Company's reputation. This can further lead to issues like retaining people, productivity and workplace safety, etc. New labor codes are expected to bring more challenges. The regulatory requirements of migrant workers are very stringent when compared to regional workers.	- Establish comprehensive employee-welfare measures. - Maintain a positive, safe and supportive work environment. - Implement an effective and timely grievance-redressal mechanism. - Support employees in achieving a healthy work-life balance. - Communicate the Company's vision clearly and help employees understand their role and significance in achieving it. - Ensure compliance with all applicable regulatory requirements and adopt additional measures to promote employee safety and welfare. - Extend safety training and EHS policies to all contract workers. - Ensure that labour contracts require complete legal and regulatory compliances, and clearly define responsibilities to minimise the risk of co-employment liabilities.	Negative as non compliances may lead to legal and financial penalties.

S. No.	Material identified issue-risk or opportunity	Rationale for identifying the risk / opportunity	In case of risk, approach to adapt or mitigate	Financial implications of the risk or opportunity (Indicate positive or negative implications)
6	Chemical Safety - Risk	Inadequate chemical safety measures may lead to potential costs related to accidents, causing damage to men, materials & surrounding settlements leading to potential legal liabilities, regulatory penalties, and reputational damage to the Company. Given the nature of chemicals handled such as flammable & toxic substances, it is essential to maintain strict vigilance along with regular maintenance and ensure adherence to established systems and procedures. Any lapse in these precautions could result in serious incidents and significant consequences.	Multi-level safety features are incorporated in plant design. Plant operations are managed through a highly automated Distributed Digital Control System (DDCS) with sufficient warning signals and auto- shutdown facility to address any abnormality. Mechanical protection devices and final control elements like Safety valves, relief valves, rupture disks have been installed as required to safely vent to Flare system. Comprehensive safety protocols such as Hazard Identification and Operability Studies (HAZOP), risk assessments, mitigation plans, and change management processes are firmly established. All employees handling chemicals are given sufficient training / ongoing training with regard to the properties of chemicals, handling procedure, spill control, proper usage of PPEs etc. Chemical transport vehicles undergo rigorous inspections using checklists to ensure the availability of essential tools, trem cards, and that drivers are properly trained.	Negative as investments to deploy latest tools and system to ensure chemical safety are high. Positive as safe chemical plants always put the Organisation in a better position among industrial peers. Compliance to Chemical Management Safety rules helps companies to tap into opportunities available globally.
7	Corporate Governance and Busi-ness Ethics - Opportunity	Effective governance practices lead to increased investor confidence, cost reduction, risk mitigation, enhanced efficiency, strengthened stakeholder trust, and creates long term value. They also contribute to improved operational efficiency and the development of a robust organizational culture. Good governance demonstrates Ethical and transparent conduct of business.	Not applicable	Positive, as good corporate governance ensures corporate success and economic growth. Facilitates Company to raise capital efficiently and effectively. Failure to comply brings massive regulatory and reputational risks.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

TO THE MEMBERS OF TAMILNADU PETROPRODUCTS LIMITED Report on the Audit of Standalone Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying standalone financial statements of Tamilnadu Petroproducts Limited ("the Company") which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2026, the Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), the Statement of Cash Flows and the Statement of Changes in Equity for the year then ended and the notes to the standalone financial statements including a summary of the material accounting policies and other explanatory information (hereinafter referred to as "the standalone financial statements").

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid standalone financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under Section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended ("Ind AS") and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31st March 2026, its profit, total comprehensive income, its cash flows and changes in equity for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ("ICAI") together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the standalone financial statements under the provisions of the Act, and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion on the standalone financial statements.

Emphasis of Matter:

We draw attention to Note No 35 C to the standalone financial statements, which explains about the expiry of lease agreement entered with Government of Tamilnadu relating to the leasehold land as of 12th June 2020 and the extension awaited from the Government of Tamilnadu in connection to the request for renewal filed. Pending renewal of the lease agreement, no adjustments have been made in the standalone financial statements for the year for any potential impact of non-renewal of land lease which is unascertainable at this point of time. Further, the management is confident of obtaining the renewal of lease of land in the due course and relying on the same, the accounting as per Ind AS 116- Leases has been done based on lease renewal period and lease rent estimated by the management that would be paid by the Company during the renewal period. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the standalone financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report. For each matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context.

Key Audit Matters	Auditors' response to Key Audit Matters
Property, Plant & Equipment During the year, the Company has capitalized amount of Rs 57,865 lakhs towards expansion of Linear Alkyl Benze (LAB) and Heavy Chemical Division (HCD) projects. The assessment of whether the expenditure meets the recognition criteria for capitalization under the applicable accounting standards, determination of the date of capitalization, and allocation of directly attributable costs involve significant management judgment. Due to the materiality in the context of the Balance Sheet of the Company and the level of judgement and estimates required, we consider this to be as area of significance.	We assessed the controls in place over the Property, plant and Equipment (PPE), evaluated the appropriateness of capitalisation process, performed tests of details on costs capitalised and the timeliness of the capitalisation of these assets. In performing these procedures, we carried out the following - • Testing, on a sample basis, the underlying supporting documents for project costs capitalized during the year; • Assessing whether the expenditures capitalized were directly attributable to the expansion project and meets the recognition criteria as per applicable accounting standards; • Verifying the arithmetical accuracy of capitalization workings, including allocation of directly attributable expenses and borrowing costs, where applicable; and • Reviewing management's assessment regarding commencement of commercial operations and the capitalization date.

Accounting for legal and other contractual claims:
The Company is involved in litigations comprising of tax matters, legal compliances, and other disputes the financial impact of which would largely depend on the decision by the appellate authorities. The Company assesses the need to make a provision or disclose a contingency on a case-to-case basis considering the underlying facts of each matter, in consultation with its legal counsel and the level of probability of outflow of economic resources. This involves a high level of management judgement and assumptions which impact the risk assessment and consequential provisioning and disclosure of contingencies in the standalone financial statements. This area is significant to our audit since the completeness and accuracy of accounting and disclosures for contingencies is dependent on such management judgement and assumptions.	Our audit procedures included the following: • Evaluated and tested the Company's processes and controls for monitoring of claims, litigations, disputes, compliance and assessment thereof for determining the likely outcome. • Read the summary of the litigations prepared by the management and discussed the material cases to determine the Company's assessment of the likelihood and magnitude of any liability that may arise. • Obtained independent legal confirmations from the concerned professionals engaged by the Company, where applicable, to seek their opinion on the status of litigations and checked the management's judgements and assumptions. • Discussed with the management to understand the basis of management's judgements and estimates and independently assessed the level of probability of outflow of resources embodying the economic resources to arrive at our judgement of whether a provision was required or a disclosure sufficient. • Read the minutes of the board meetings to determine the completeness of claims, disputes, and litigations. • Tested the adequacy of disclosures in the standalone financial statements. • Also obtained necessary representation from the management with regard to the provisioning and disclosures in respect of the claims and litigations.

Other Information

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Management Discussion and Analysis, Board's Report including annexures to Board's Report and Report on Corporate Governance but does not include the standalone financial statements and our auditor's reports thereon. The other information referred above is expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the standalone financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not and will not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the standalone financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the standalone financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

When we read the other information, if we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance.

Management's Responsibility for the Standalone Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance including other comprehensive income, cash flows and changes in equity of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the IND AS specified under the Act read with Rules framed thereunder as applicable.

This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the standalone financial statements, the Board of Directors is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management
- Conclude on the appropriateness of Board of Directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the standalone financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the standalone financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the standalone financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The Company's Management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ('ICAI'). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to Company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting and the Standards of Auditing, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both issued by the ICAI. Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements and their operating effectiveness.

Our audit of internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls with Reference to Standalone Financial Statements

A Company's internal financial control with reference to standalone financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of standalone financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A Company's internal financial control with reference to financial statement includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of standalone financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the Company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the standalone financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls with Reference to Standalone Financial Statements

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control with reference to standalone financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

1. General Information:

Company Information

Tamilnadu Petroproducts Limited (the 'Company') is a public limited company domiciled in India with its registered office located at Manali Express Highway, Manali, Chennai - 600068 jointly promoted by Tamilnadu Industrial Development Corporation Limited (TIDCO) and Southern Petrochemical Industries Corporation Limited (SPIC). The Company is listed on the Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE) and the National Stock Exchange (NSE).

The Company is primarily engaged in the manufacturing and sale of petrochemical products viz., Linear Alkyl Benzene (LAB), Caustic Soda (CS lye), Chlorine and Propylene Oxide at its facilities situated at Manali, Chennai.

2. Basis of preparation, measurement and material accounting policies

2.1 Basis of Preparation and Measurement

(a) Basis of preparation:

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Indian Accounting Standards (hereinafter referred to as the 'Ind AS') as notified by Ministry of Corporate Affairs ('MCA') pursuant to Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with Rule 3 of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 as amended from time to time.

The standalone financial statements have been prepared on accrual and going concern basis. The accounting policies are applied consistently to all the periods presented in the standalone financial statements.

(b) Basis of measurement:

These financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention unless otherwise indicated.

2.2 Key accounting estimates and judgments:

In the application of the Company's accounting policies the Management of the Company is required to make judgments, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities, revenue and expenses that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

The estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are discussed below:

The areas involving critical estimates or judgments are:

- i. Depreciation: Depreciation is based on management estimates of the future useful life and residual value of certain class of property, plant and equipment and ROU assets. Useful life and residual value of an asset is determined by the Management at the time an asset is acquired and reviewed periodically, including at each financial year end. The lives are based on historical experience with similar assets as well as anticipation of future events, which may impact their life.
- ii. Employee Benefits: The present value of the employee benefits obligations depends on a number of factors that are determined on an actuarial basis using a number of assumptions. The assumptions used in determining the net cost (income) includes the discount rate, wage escalation and employee attrition. Any changes in these assumptions will impact the carrying amount of obligations. The discount rate is based on the prevailing market yields of Indian Government securities as at the balance sheet date for the estimated term of the obligations. Actuarial gains/losses relating to defined benefit obligation is recognized in Other Comprehensive income. The sensitivity analysis for changes in estimates is disclosed under relevant Notes.
- iii. Provision and contingencies: Provisions and contingencies are based on the Management's best estimate of the liabilities based on the facts known at the balance sheet date.
- iv. Estimation of net realizable value of inventories: Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value. In estimating the net realizable value of inventories, the Company makes an estimate of future selling prices and cost necessary to make the sale.

All amounts are in ₹ Lakh unless otherwise stated

- v. Fair valuation: Fair value is the market based measurement of observable market transaction or available market information of an asset or liability.
- vi. Taxes: Significant judgments are required in determining the provision for taxes including the amount expected to be paid/recovered for uncertain tax positions.

The principal accounting policies are set out below:

2.3 Revenue recognition:

The Company derives revenue primarily from sale of industrial intermediate chemicals viz Linear Alkyl Benzene, Caustic Soda Lye and its Derivatives, besides Propylene Oxide.

Revenue from sale of goods or services is recognized when it is probable that the entity will collect the consideration to which it will be entitled in exchange for the goods or services that will be transferred to the customer.

Revenue from sale of products is recognized when control of products being sold is transferred to customer and when there are no longer any unfulfilled obligations. The performance obligations in contracts are considered as fulfilled in accordance with the terms agreed with the respective customers.

Revenue towards satisfaction of a performance obligation is measured at the amount of transaction price (net of variable consideration) allocated to that performance obligation. The transaction price of goods sold and services rendered is net of variable consideration on account of various discounts and schemes offered by the Company as part of the contract.

The Company considers the terms of the contract and its customary business practices to determine the transaction price. The transaction price is the amount of consideration to which an entity expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring promised goods or services to a customer, excluding amounts collected on behalf of third parties (taxes collected on behalf of Government etc.) .

Interest income is recognized using effective interest method. Dividend income is recognized at the time when the right to receive is established by the reporting date. Other incomes have been recognized on accrual basis in the financial statements, except when there is uncertainty of collection. Foreign currency gain or loss is reported on net basis and includes gain or loss in respect of concluded forward contracts.

Export Incentive:

Export benefits in the nature of focus market scheme are accrued in the year of exports based on the eligibility taking into consideration the prevailing regulations/policies and when there is no uncertainty in receiving the same. Adjustments, if any, to the amounts recognized in accordance with the accounting policy, based on final determination by the authorities, would be dealt with appropriately in the year of final determination and acceptance.

2.4 Foreign currencies:

In preparing the financial statements of the Company, transactions in currencies other than the entity's functional currency (foreign currencies) are recognized at the rates of exchange prevailing at the dates of the transactions. At the end of each reporting period, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at that date. Non-monetary items carried at fair value that are denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at the date when the fair value was determined. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

Exchange differences on monetary items are recognized in profit or loss in the period in which they arise except for exchange differences on transactions entered into in order to hedge certain foreign currency risks which are recognised in Other comprehensive income and later to statement of profit and loss.

2.5 Borrowing costs:

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets, until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale.

Interest income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalization.

All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

2.6 Employee benefits:

Employee benefits include contributions to Provident Fund (PF), Employee State Insurance (ESI) scheme, gratuity fund and payment of compensated absences to eligible employees.

a) Defined contribution plans:

The Company's contribution to PF and ESI scheme are considered as defined contribution plans and are recognized as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss when employees have rendered service entitling them to the contributions. The Company has no further obligations beyond the monthly contribution to these schemes.

b) Defined benefit plans:

For defined benefit plans in the form of gratuity fund, the cost of providing benefits is determined using the projected unit credit method, with actuarial valuations being carried out by an independent actuary at the end of each reporting period. Defined benefit costs are categorized as follows:

- Service cost (including current service cost, past service cost, as well as gains and losses on curtailments and settlements);
- Net interest expense or income; and
- Re-measurement

The Company presents the first two components of defined benefit costs in profit or loss in the line item 'Employee benefits expense'. Net interest is calculated by applying the discount rate at the beginning of the period to the net defined benefit liability or asset. Re-measurement, comprising actuarial gains and losses, the effect of the changes to the asset ceiling (if applicable) and the return on plan assets (excluding net interest), is reflected immediately in the balance sheet with a charge or credit recognized in other comprehensive income in the period in which they occur. Re-measurement recognized in other comprehensive income is reflected immediately in retained earnings and is not reclassified to profit or loss. Curtailment gains and losses are accounted for as past service costs. Past service cost is recognized in profit or loss in the period of a plan amendment.

The obligation recognized in the balance sheet represents the actual deficit or surplus in the Company's defined benefit plans. Any surplus resulting from this calculation is limited to the present value of any economic benefits available in the form of refunds from the plans or reductions in future contributions to the plans.

c. Short-term employee benefits:

Short term employee benefits including accumulated compensated absences as at the Balance Sheet date are recognized as an expense as per Company's schemes based on expected obligation on an undiscounted basis.

d. Other long-term employee benefits:

Other long-term employee benefit comprise of compensated absences which is provided for based on the actuarial valuation carried out as at the end of the year.

Liabilities recognized in respect of other long-term employee benefits are measured at the present value of the estimated future cash outflows expected to be made by the Company in respect of services provided by employees up to the reporting date.

2.7 Taxes on Income:

Income tax expense comprises current and deferred taxes. Income tax expense is recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss except to the extent it relates to items recognized directly in equity, in which case it is recognized in equity.

• Current tax

Current tax is determined as the amount of tax payable in respect of taxable income for the year as determined in accordance with the applicable tax rates and the provisions of the Income-tax Act, 1961.

Current tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity).

The Company offsets current tax assets and current tax liabilities, where it has a legally enforceable right to set off the recognized amounts and where it intends either to settle on a net basis or to realise the assets and settle the liability simultaneously.

• Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognized on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognized for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognized for all deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences and tax losses can be utilized. Such deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognized if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit. Deferred tax assets include unused tax credits.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax liabilities and assets are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset realized, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax relating to items recognised outside the Statement of Profit and Loss is recognised outside Statement of Profit and Loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity).

2.8 Property, plant and equipment, Right of Use assets and Capital Work-in-Progress

A. Owned Assets

Property, plant and equipment are stated in the Balance Sheet at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Cost includes purchase price, attributable expenditure incurred in bringing the asset to its working condition for the intended use and cost of borrowing till the date of capitalization in the case of assets involving material investment and substantial lead time.

Assets in the course of construction for production, supply or administrative purposes are carried at cost, less any recognized impairment loss. Depreciation of these assets, on the same basis as other property assets, commences when the assets are ready for their intended use.

Items such as spare parts, stand-by equipment and servicing equipment that meet the definition of property, plant and equipment are capitalized at cost and depreciated over their useful life. Costs in nature of repairs and maintenance are recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss as and when incurred. Subsequent expenditures relating to property, plant and equipment is capitalized only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with these will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably.

Depreciation is provided on the straight-line method as per the useful life prescribed in Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013 except in respect of following categories of assets in whose case the life of certain assets has been assessed based on technical advice taking into account the nature of the asset, the estimated usage of the asset, the operating condition of the asset, past history of replacement, maintenance support etc.

- i) Plant and Machinery – 5 to 25 years
- ii) Office Equipment – 3 years
- iii) Furniture & Fixtures – 5 years
- iv) Vehicles – 5 years

Each major part of property, plant and equipment with a cost that is significant in relation to its total cost of the item is capitalized and depreciated separately.

The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis. Land is not depreciated.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognized in the statement of profit or loss.

B. Leased Assets:

The Company's lease asset classes primarily consist of leases for Land, Buildings and Plant & Machinery. The Company assesses whether a contract contains a lease, at inception of a contract. A contract contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. To assess whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset, the Company assesses whether:

- (i) the contract involves the use of an identified asset.
- (ii) the Company has substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the asset through the period of the lease and
- (iii) the Company has the right to direct the use of the asset.

At the date of commencement of the lease, the Company recognises a right-of-use asset ("ROU") and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of twelve months or less (short-term leases) and leases of low value assets. For these short-term and leases of low value assets, the Company recognises the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

Right-of-use assets are depreciated from the commencement date on a straight-line basis over the lease term of the underlying asset.

The ROU assets are initially recognised at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or prior to the commencement.

Lease liability and ROU asset have been separately presented in the Balance Sheet and payment towards lease liabilities have been classified as financing cash flows.

C. Capital work-in-progress

Capital work-in-progress comprises of property, plant and equipment that are not ready for their intended use at the end of reporting period and are carried at cost comprising direct costs, related incidental expenses, other directly attributable costs and borrowing costs.

2.9 Impairment of assets:

The Company assesses at each reporting date whether there is an indication that an asset/cash generating unit may be impaired. If any indication exists the Company estimates the recoverable amount of such assets and if carrying amount exceeds the recoverable amount, impairment is recognized. The recoverable amount is the higher of the fair value less its cost of disposal and its value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using an appropriate pre-tax discount factor.

Investments in subsidiaries and associates are reviewed for impairment if there is an indication that carrying amount may not be recoverable.

Impairment losses, if any, are recognized in the statement of profit and loss and included in the depreciation and amortization expense. When there is indication that previously recognized impairment loss no longer exists or may have decreased due to change in estimates used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognized such reversal of impairment loss is recognized in the statement of profit or loss. The increased carrying amount of an asset attributable to a reversal of an impairment loss does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of amortization or depreciation) had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset in prior years.

2.10 Inventories:

Raw materials and other inventories are valued at lower of cost and net realizable value. However, materials and other items held for use in production of inventories are not written down below cost if the finished goods in which they will be incorporated are expected to be sold at or above cost. Net realizable value represents the estimated selling price of inventories less all estimated costs of completion and costs necessary to make the sale.

The method of determination of cost of various categories of inventories is as follows:

- Raw material, Stores and spares – Weighted average cost.
- Finished goods and Work-in-progress – Weighted average cost of production which comprises of direct material costs, direct wages and applicable overheads.

➤ Stock-in-trade – Weighted average cost

Cost of inventory comprises all costs of purchase, duties, taxes (other than those subsequently recoverable from tax authorities) and all other costs incurred in bringing the inventory to their present location and condition. Cost of finished goods and work-in-progress includes the cost of raw materials, packing materials, an appropriate share of fixed and variable production overheads and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition'.

Fixed overheads are allocated on the basis of normal operating capacity.

Goods in transit are stated at actual cost incurred up to the reporting date.

2.11 Exceptional item:

Significant gains/losses or expenses incurred arising from external events that is not expected to recur are disclosed as 'Exceptional item'.

2.12 Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets:

Provisions are recognized only when there is a present obligation (legal and constructive) as a result of past events and when a reasonable estimate of the amount of obligation can be made. The amount recognized as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. When a provision measured using the cash flows estimated to settle the present obligation, its carrying amount is the present value of those cash flows (when the effect of the time value of money is material).

Contingent liabilities are disclosed for (i) possible obligation which will be confirmed only by future events not wholly within the control of the Company or (ii) present obligations arising from past events where it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation or a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation cannot be made.

When there is a possible obligation or a present obligation in respect of which likelihood of outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.

Contingent assets are not recognized. It is disclosed only when the inflow of economic benefits is probable.

2.13 Assets held for sale:

Non-current assets or disposal groups comprising of assets and liabilities are classified as 'held for sale' when all the following criteria are met: (i) decision has been made to sell, (ii) the assets are available for immediate sale in its present condition, (iii) the assets are being actively marketed and (iv) sale has been agreed or is expected to be concluded within 12 months of the Balance Sheet date.

Subsequently, such non-current assets and disposal groups classified as 'held for sale' are measured at the lower of its carrying value and fair value less costs to sell. Non-current assets held for sale are not depreciated or amortised.

2.14 Financial instruments:

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognized when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are recognized immediately in profit or loss.

Financial assets:

All regular way purchases or sales of financial assets are recognized and derecognized on a trade date basis. Regular way purchases or sales are purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the time frame established by regulation or convention in the marketplace.

All recognized financial assets are subsequently measured in their entirety at either amortized cost or fair value, depending on the classification of the financial assets.

All amounts are in ₹ Lakh unless otherwise stated

Classification of financial assets:

Debt instruments that meet the following conditions are subsequently measured at amortized cost (except for debt instruments that are designated as at fair value through profit or loss on initial recognition):

- the asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets in order to collect contractual cash flows; and
- the contractual terms of the instrument give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Debt instruments that meet the following conditions are subsequently measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (except for debt instruments that are designated as at fair value through profit or loss on initial recognition):

- the asset is held within a business model whose objective is achieved both by collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets; and
- the contractual terms of the instrument give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Interest income is recognized in profit or loss for Fair value through other Comprehensive income (FVTOCI) debt instruments. For the purposes of recognizing foreign exchange gains and losses, FVTOCI debt instruments are treated as financial assets measured at amortized cost. Thus, the exchange differences on the amortized cost are recognized in profit or loss and other changes in the fair value of FVTOCI financial assets are recognized in other comprehensive income and accumulated under the heading of 'Reserve for debt instruments through other comprehensive income'. When the investment is disposed of, the cumulative gain or loss previously accumulated in this reserve is reclassified to profit or loss.

All other financial assets are subsequently measured at fair value.

2.15 Effective interest method:

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortized cost of a debt instrument and of allocating interest income over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts (including all fees and points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the debt instrument, or, where appropriate, a shorter period, to the net carrying amount on initial recognition.

Income is recognized on an effective interest basis for debt instruments other than those financial assets classified as at FVTPL. Interest income is recognized in profit or loss and is included in the "Other income" line item.

2.16 Investments in Subsidiaries, Associates and Joint Ventures:

Investments in Subsidiaries, Associates and Joint Ventures are carried at cost less accumulated impairment losses, if any. Where an indication of impairment exists, the carrying amount of the investment is assessed and written down immediately to its recoverable amount. On disposal of investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint venture, the difference between net disposal proceeds and the carrying amounts are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

2.17 Impairment of financial assets:

The Company applies the expected credit loss model for recognizing impairment loss on financial assets measured at amortized cost, trade receivables, and other contractual rights to receive cash or other financial asset, and financial guarantees not designated as at FVTPL.

Expected credit losses are the weighted average of credit losses with the respective risks of default occurring as the weights. Credit loss is the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Company in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Company expects to receive (i.e. all cash shortfalls), discounted at the original effective interest rate (or credit-adjusted effective interest rate for purchased or originated credit-impaired financial assets). The Company estimates cash flows by considering all contractual terms of the financial instrument through the expected life of that financial instrument.

The Company measures the loss allowance for a financial instrument at an amount equal to the lifetime expected credit losses if the credit risk on that financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition. If the credit risk on a financial instrument has not increased significantly since initial recognition, the Company measures the loss allowance for that financial instrument at an amount equal to 12-month expected credit losses. 12-month expected credit losses are portion of the life-time expected credit losses and represent the lifetime cash shortfalls that will result if default occurs within the 12 months after the reporting date and thus, are not cash shortfalls that are predicted over the next 12 months.

If the Company measured loss allowance for a financial instrument at lifetime expected credit loss model in the previous period, but determines at the end of a reporting period that the credit risk has not increased significantly since initial recognition due to improvement in credit quality as compared to the previous period, the Company again measures the loss allowance based on 12-month expected credit losses.

When making the assessment of whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, the Company uses the change in the risk of a default occurring over the expected life of the financial instrument instead of the change in the amount of expected credit losses. To make that assessment, the Company compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition and considers reasonable and supportable information, that is available without undue cost or effort, that is indicative of significant increases in credit risk since initial recognition.

For trade receivables or any contractual right to receive cash or another financial asset that result from transactions that are within the scope of Ind AS 11 and Ind AS 18, the Company always measures the loss allowance at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit losses.

Further, for the purpose of measuring lifetime expected credit loss allowance for trade receivables, the Company has used a practical expedient as permitted under Ind AS 109. This expected credit loss allowance is computed based on a provision matrix which takes into account historical credit loss experience and adjusted for forward-looking information.

The impairment requirements for the recognition and measurement of a loss allowance are equally applied to debt instruments at FVTOCI except that the loss allowance is recognized in other comprehensive income and is not reduced from the carrying amount in the balance sheet.

2.18 Derecognition of financial assets:

The Company derecognizes a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another party. If the Company neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership and continues to control the transferred asset, the Company recognizes its retained interest in the asset and an associated liability for amounts it may have to pay. If the Company retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a transferred financial asset, the Company continues to recognize the financial asset and also recognizes a collateralized borrowing for the proceeds received.

On derecognition of a financial asset in its entirety, the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and receivable and the cumulative gain or loss that had been recognized in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity is recognized in profit or loss if such gain or loss would have otherwise been recognized in profit or loss on disposal of that financial asset.

On derecognition of a financial asset other than in its entirety, the Company allocates the previous carrying amount of the financial asset between the part it continues to recognize under continuing involvement, and the part it no longer recognizes on the basis of the relative fair values of those parts on the date of the transfer. The difference between the carrying amount allocated to the part that is no longer recognized and the sum of the consideration received for the part no longer recognized and any cumulative gain or loss allocated to it that had been recognized in other comprehensive income is recognized in profit or loss if such gain or loss would have otherwise been recognized in profit or loss on disposal of that financial asset.

A cumulative gain or loss that had been recognized in other comprehensive income is allocated between the part that continues to be recognized and the part that is no longer recognized on the basis of the relative fair values of those parts.

2.19 Foreign exchange gains and losses:

The fair value of financial assets denominated in a foreign currency is determined in that foreign currency and translated at the spot rate at the end of each reporting period.

- For foreign currency denominated financial assets measured at amortized cost and FVTPL, the exchange differences are recognized in profit or loss except for those which are designated as hedging instruments in a hedging relationship.
- Changes in the carrying amount of investments in equity instruments at FVTOCI relating to changes in foreign currency rates are recognized in other comprehensive income.

For the purposes of recognizing foreign exchange gains and losses, FVTOCI debt instruments are treated as financial assets measured at amortized cost. Thus, the exchange differences on the amortized cost are recognized in profit or loss and other changes in the fair value of FVTOCI financial assets are recognized in other comprehensive income.

All amounts are in ₹ Lakh unless otherwise stated

2.20 Financial liabilities and equity instruments:

a. Classification as debt or equity

Debt and equity instruments issued by the Company are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

b. Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the Company are recognized at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Repurchase of the Company's own equity instruments is recognized and deducted directly in equity. No gain or loss is recognized in profit or loss on the purchase, sale, issue or cancellation of the Company's own equity instruments.

c. Financial liabilities

All financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method or at FVTPL.

However, financial liabilities that arise when a transfer of a financial asset does not qualify for derecognition or when the continuing involvement approach applies, financial guarantee contracts issued by the Company, and commitments issued by the Company to provide a loan at below-market interest rate are measured in accordance with the specific accounting policies set out below.

d. Financial liabilities at FVTPL

Financial liabilities are classified as at FVTPL when the financial liability is either contingent consideration recognized by the Company as an acquirer in a business combination to which Ind AS 103 applies or is held for trading or it is designated as at FVTPL.

A financial liability is classified as held for trading if:

- it has been incurred principally for the purpose of repurchasing it in the near term; or
- on initial recognition it is part of a portfolio of identified financial instruments that the Company manages together and has a recent actual pattern of short-term profit-taking; or
- It is a derivative that is not designated and effective as a hedging instrument.

A financial liability other than a financial liability held for trading or contingent consideration recognized by the Company as an acquirer in a business combination to which Ind AS 103 applies, may be designated as at FVTPL upon initial recognition if:

- such designation eliminates or significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency that would otherwise arise;
- the financial liability forms part of group of financial assets or financial liabilities or both, which is managed and its performance is evaluated on a fair value basis, in accordance with the Company's documented risk management or investment strategy, and information about the grouping is provided internally on that basis; or
- It forms part of a contract containing one or more embedded derivatives, and Ind AS 109 permits the entire combined contract to be designated as at FVTPL in accordance with Ind AS 109.

Financial liabilities at FVTPL are stated at fair value, with any gains or losses arising on remeasurement recognized in profit or loss. The net gain or loss recognized in profit or loss incorporates any interest paid on the financial liability and is included in the 'Other income' line item.

However, for non-held-for-trading financial liabilities that are designated as at FVTPL, the amount of change in the fair value of the financial liability that is attributable to changes in the credit risk of that liability is recognized in other comprehensive income, unless the recognition of the effects of changes in the liability's credit risk in other comprehensive income would create or enlarge an accounting mismatch in profit or loss, in which case these effects of changes in credit risk are recognized in profit or loss. The remaining amount of change in the fair value of liability is always recognized in profit or loss. Changes in fair value attributable to a financial liability's credit risk that are recognized in other comprehensive income are reflected immediately in retained earnings and are not subsequently reclassified to profit or loss.

Gains or losses on financial guarantee contracts and loan commitments issued by the Company that are designated by the Company as at fair value through profit or loss are recognized in profit or loss.

e. Financial liabilities subsequently measured at amortized cost

Financial liabilities that are not held-for-trading and are not designated as at FVTPL are measured at amortized cost at the end of subsequent accounting periods. The carrying amounts of financial liabilities that are subsequently measured at amortized cost are determined based on the effective interest method. Interest expense that is not capitalized as part of costs of an asset is included in the 'Finance costs' line item.

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortized cost of a financial liability and of allocating interest expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash payments (including all fees and points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the financial liability, or (where appropriate) a shorter period, to the net carrying amount on initial recognition.

f. Foreign exchange gains and losses

For financial liabilities that are denominated in a foreign currency and are measured at amortized cost at the end of each reporting period, the foreign exchange gains and losses are determined based on the amortized cost of the instruments and are recognized in 'Other income'.

The fair value of financial liabilities denominated in a foreign currency is determined in that foreign currency and translated at the spot rate at the end of the reporting period. For financial liabilities that are measured as at FVTPL, the foreign exchange component forms part of the fair value gains or losses and is recognized in profit or loss.

g. De-recognition of financial liabilities

The Company derecognizes financial liabilities when, and only when, the Company's obligations are discharged, cancelled or have expired. An exchange between lenders of debt instruments with substantially different terms is accounted for as an extinguishment of the original financial liability and the recognition of a new financial liability. Similarly, a substantial modification of the terms of an existing financial liability (whether or not attributable to the financial difficulty of the debtor) is accounted for as an extinguishment of the original financial liability and the recognition of a new financial liability. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognized and the consideration paid and payable is recognized in profit or loss.

Discount rate	7.24%	6.77%
Salary escalation rate	6.00%	6.00%
Employee turnover rates	7.00%	10.00%

K. Risk Exposure
(A) Liability Risks
(i) Asset-Liability Mismatch Risk
Risk if there is a mismatch in the duration of the assets relative to the liabilities. By matching duration with the defined benefit liabilities, the company is successfully able to neutralize valuation swings caused by interest rate movements. Hence companies are encouraged to adopt asset-liability management.
(ii) Discount Rate Risk
Variations in the discount rate used to compute the present value of the liabilities may seem small, but in practice can have a significant impact on the defined benefit liabilities.
(iii) Future Salary Escalation and Inflation Risk
Since price inflation and salary growth are linked economically, they are combined for disclosure purposes. Rising salaries will often result in higher future defined benefit payments resulting in a higher present value of liabilities especially unexpected salary increases provided at management's discretion may lead to estimation uncertainties increasing this risk.
(B) Unfunded Plan Risk
This represents unmanaged risk and a growing liability. There is an inherent risk here that the company may default on paying the benefits in adverse circumstances. Funding the plan removes volatility from the balance sheet and better manages defined benefit risk through increased returns

C. Lease arrangements with the Government of Tamilnadu

The agreement entered with the Government of Tamilnadu in respect of leasehold land on which Propylene Oxide plant is operating expired on 12th June 2020. Application for renewal of the lease for further period has been filed with the relevant authorities. In the meanwhile, the Company received a demand for payment of arrears of lease rent for the period 1st July 1990- 30th June 2020 to the tune of ₹ 9,224.33 lakhs from the Vattachiyer, Tiruvottiyur. Despite representation made by the company in this regard, in the absence of any response from the authorities as to the basis on which the above demand was raised, the management is of the view that the demand is arbitrary and devoid of any merit. The Company continues to make payment of the lease rent at contracted rates as per the earlier agreement with Government of Tamilnadu, in terms of the extant Government guidelines for lease of land for industrial purposes. Pending execution of the renewed lease agreement from 13th June 2020, the company has recognised Right of use of Assets (ROUA) on the indicative increase in lease rentals for a period of 30 years.

CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS 2025-26

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

TO THE MEMBERS OF TAMILNADU PETROPRODUCTS LIMITED Report on the Audit of Consolidated Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Tamilnadu Petroproducts Limited (hereinafter referred to as "the Holding Company") and its subsidiaries (the Holding Company and its subsidiaries together referred to as "the Group"), which comprises the Consolidated Balance Sheet as at 31st March 2026, the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows and the Consolidated Statement of Changes in Equity, for the year then ended and the notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of the material accounting policies and other explanatory information (hereinafter referred to as "the consolidated financial statements").

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us and based on the consideration of reports of other auditors on separate financial statements, the aforesaid consolidated financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended ("Ind AS") and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the consolidated state of affairs of the Group, as at 31st March 2026 and its consolidated profit and consolidated total comprehensive income, the consolidated cash flows and the consolidated statement of changes in equity for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group, in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the consolidated financial statements in India in terms of the Code of Ethics issued by Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ('ICAI') and the relevant provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained, and the audit evidence obtained by the other auditors in terms of their reports referred to in Other Matters paragraph below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion on the consolidated financial statements.

Emphasis of Matter:

We draw attention to Note No 35 C to the consolidated financial statements, which explains about the expiry of lease agreement entered with Government of Tamilnadu relating to the leasehold land as of 12th June 2020 and the extension awaited from the Government of Tamilnadu for the request for renewal filed. Pending renewal of the lease agreement, no adjustments have been made in the consolidated financial statements for the year for any potential impact of non-renewal of land lease which is unascertainable at this point of time. Further the management is confident of obtaining the renewal of lease of land in the due course and relying on the same, the accounting as per Ind AS 116- Leases has been done based on lease renewal period and lease rent estimated by the management that would be paid by the Company during the renewal period. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report. For each matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context.

Key Audit Matters	Auditors' response to Key Audit Matters
Property, Plant & Equipment During the year, the Company has capitalized amount of Rs 57,865 lakhs towards expansion of Linear Alkyl Benze (LAB) and Heavy Chemical Division (HCD) projects. The assessment of whether the expenditure meets the recognition criteria for capitalization under the applicable accounting standards, determination of the date of capitalization, and allocation of directly attributable costs involve significant management judgment. Due to the materiality in the context of the Balance Sheet of the Company and the level of judgement and estimates required, we consider this to be as area of significance.	We assessed the controls in place over the Property, plant and Equipment (PPE), evaluated the appropriateness of capitalisation process, performed tests of details on costs capitalised and the timeliness of the capitalisation of these assets. In performing these procedures, we carried out the following - - Testing, on a sample basis, the underlying supporting documents for project costs capitalized during the year; - Assessing whether the expenditures capitalized were directly attributable to the expansion project and meets the recognition criteria as per applicable accounting standards; - Verifying the arithmetical accuracy of capitalization workings, including allocation of directly attributable expenses and borrowing costs, where applicable; and - Reviewing management's assessment regarding commencement of commercial operations and the capitalization date.

Key Audit Matters	Auditors' response to Key Audit Matters
Accounting for legal and other contractual claims: The Company is involved in litigations comprising of tax matters, legal compliances, and other disputes the financial impact of which would largely depend on the decision by the appellate authorities. The Company assesses the need to make a provision or disclose a contingency on a case-to-case basis considering the underlying facts of each matter, in consultation with its legal counsel and the level of probability of outflow of economic resources. This involves a high level of management judgement and assumptions which impact the risk assessment and consequential provisioning and disclosure of contingencies in the consolidated financial statements. This area is significant to our audit since the completeness and accuracy of accounting and disclosures for contingencies is dependent on such management judgement and assumptions.	Our audit procedures included the following: • Evaluated and tested the Company's processes and controls for monitoring of claims, litigations, disputes, compliance and assessment thereof for determining the likely outcome. • Read the summary of the litigations prepared by the management and discussed the material cases to determine the Company's assessment of the likelihood and magnitude of any liability that may arise. • Obtained independent legal confirmations from the concerned professionals engaged by the Company, where applicable, to seek their opinion on the status of litigations and checked the management's judgements and assumptions. • Discussed with the management to understand the basis of management's judgements and estimates and independently assessed the level of probability of outflow of resources embodying the economic resources to arrive at our judgement of whether a provision was required or a disclosure sufficient. • Read the minutes of the board meetings to determine the completeness of claims, disputes, and litigations. • Tested the adequacy of disclosures in the standalone financial statements. • Also obtained necessary representation from the management with regard to the provisioning and disclosures in respect of the claims and litigations.

Other Information

The Holding Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Management Discussion and Analysis, Board's Report including Annexures to Board's Report and Report on Corporate Governance but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's reports thereon. The other information referred to above is expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not and will not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

When we read the other information, if we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The Holding Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Act, with respect to the preparation of these consolidated financial statements, that give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position, consolidated financial performance including other comprehensive income, consolidated cash flows and consolidated statement of changes in equity of the Group in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including Ind AS prescribed under Section 133 of the Act, read with relevant Rules framed thereunder.

The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Group and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; the selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, which have been used for the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements by the Directors of the Holding Company, as aforesaid.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group are responsible for assessing the ability of the respective entities to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the respective Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the respective entities or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group are responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of the respective companies.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3) (i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company or its' subsidiaries which are incorporated in India, has adequate internal financial controls with reference to financials statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion.

Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision, and performance of the audit of the financial statements of such entities included in the consolidated financial statements of which we are the independent auditors. For the other entities included in the consolidated financial statements, which have been audited by other auditors, such other auditors remain responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audits carried out by them. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the consolidated financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the consolidated financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in

- i. planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and
- ii. to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the consolidated financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance of the Holding Company regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

ANNEXURE A TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

[Referred to in Clause (f) of Paragraph 1 of Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements of our report of even date on the Consolidated Financial Statements of the Holding Company, for the year ended 31st March 2026]

In conjunction with our audit of the consolidated financial statements of Tamilnadu Petroproducts Limited (hereinafter referred to as 'the Holding Company') as of and for the year ended March 31, 2026, we have audited the Internal Financial Controls with reference to the consolidated financial statements of the Holding Company, as of that date. All the subsidiaries of the Holding Company are companies incorporated outside India.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls with Reference to Consolidated Financial Statements

The Board of Directors of the Holding Company, which is incorporated in India, is responsible for establishing and maintaining Internal Financial Controls based on the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Control Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate Internal Financial Controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the respective Company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act').

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Holding Company's Internal Financial Controls with reference to consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Control Over Financial Reporting issued by the ICAI and the Standards on Auditing prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate Internal Financial Controls with reference to consolidated financial statements were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls with reference to financial statement and their operating effectiveness.

Our audit of internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Holding Company's internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls with Reference to Consolidated Financial Statements

A Company's internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of Ind AS Financial Statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A Company's internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the Company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls with Reference to Consolidated Financial Statements

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

In our opinion, the Holding Company has, in all material respects, adequate internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements and such internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements were operating effectively as at March 31, 2026, based on the criteria for internal financial controls with reference consolidated financial statements stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by ICAI.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities

Subsidiaries are entities where the group exercise control or hold more than one-half of its total share capital. The net assets and results of acquired businesses are included in the consolidated financial statements from their respective dates of acquisition, being the date on which the Group obtains control. The results of disposed businesses are included in the consolidated financial statements up to their date of disposal, being the date control ceases.

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared using uniform accounting policies for like transactions and other events in similar circumstances. The accounting policies adopted in the preparation of consolidated financial statements are consistent with those of previous year. The consolidated financial statements of the Group and its subsidiaries have been combined on a line-by-line basis by adding together the book values of like items of assets, liabilities, income and expenses, after eliminating intragroup balances, intra-group transactions and the unrealized profits/losses, unless cost/revenue cannot be recovered.

The Consolidated Financial statements are presented in ₹, the functional currency of the Group. Items included in the financial statements of the Companies are recorded using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Group operates (the 'functional currency').

Transactions and balances with values below the rounding off norm adopted by the group have been reflected as "0" in the relevant notes to these financial statements.

The Consolidated Financial statements of the Group for the year ended March 31, 2026 were approved for issue in accordance with the resolution of the Board of Directors on May 19, 2026.

(b) Basis of measurement:

These Consolidated Financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention unless otherwise indicated.

2.2 Key accounting estimates and judgments:

In the application of the Group's accounting policies the Management of the Group is required to make judgments, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities, revenue and expenses that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

The estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are discussed below:

The areas involving critical estimates or judgments are:

- i. Depreciation and amortization: Depreciation and amortization is based on management estimates of the future useful life and residual value of certain class of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets. Useful life and residual value of an asset is determined by the Management at the time an asset is acquired and reviewed periodically, including at each financial year end. The lives are based on historical experience with similar assets as well as anticipation of future events, which may impact their life.
- ii. Employee Benefits: The present value of the employee benefits obligations depends on a number of factors that are determined on an actuarial basis using a number of assumptions. The assumptions used in determining the net cost (income) includes the discount rate, wage escalation and employee attrition. Any changes in these assumptions will impact the carrying amount of obligations. The discount rate is based on the prevailing market yields of Indian Government securities as at the balance sheet date for the estimated term of the obligations. Actuarial gains/losses relating to defined benefit obligation is recognized in Other Comprehensive income. The sensitivity analysis for changes in estimates is disclosed under relevant Notes.
- iii. Provision and contingencies: Provisions and contingencies are based on the Management's best estimate of the liabilities based on the facts known at the balance sheet date.

All amounts are in ₹ Lakh unless otherwise stated

- iv. Estimation of net realizable value of inventories: Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value. In estimating the net realizable value of inventories, the Group makes an estimate of future selling prices and cost necessary to make the sale.
- v. Fair valuation: Fair value is the market based measurement of observable market transaction or available market information.
- vi. Taxes: Significant judgments are required in determining the provision for taxes including the amount expected to be paid/recovered for uncertain tax positions.

The principal accounting policies are set out below:

2.3 Basis of consolidation:

a) Subsidiaries:

Subsidiaries are entities controlled by the Group. The Group controls an entity when it is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. The financial statements of subsidiaries are included in the consolidated financial statements from the date on which control is acquired until the date on which control ceases to exist.

b) Foreign currency translation:

The consolidated financial statements are presented in Indian Rupee, which is the parent functional and presentation currency and include the financial position and results in respect of foreign operations, initially measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (i.e. their functional currency) and translated as follows:

- assets and liabilities are translated at the closing rate at the date of that balance sheet;
- income and expenses are translated at average exchange rates;
- all resulting exchange differences are recognized in other comprehensive income;

The principal accounting policies are set out below:

2.4 Revenue recognition:

The Group derives revenue primarily from sale of industrial intermediate chemicals viz Linear Alkyl Benzene, Caustic Soda Lye and its Derivatives, besides Propylene Oxide.

Revenue from sale of goods or services is recognized when it is probable that the entity will collect the consideration to which it will be entitled in exchange for the goods or services that will be transferred to the customer.

Revenue from sale of products is recognized when control of products being sold is transferred to customer and when there are no longer any unfulfilled obligations. The performance obligations in contracts are considered as fulfilled in accordance with the terms agreed with the respective customers.

Revenue towards satisfaction of a performance obligation is measured at the amount of transaction price (net of variable consideration) allocated to that performance obligation. The transaction price of goods sold and services rendered is net of variable consideration on account of various discounts and schemes offered by the Group as part of the contract.

The Group considers the terms of the contract and its customary business practices to determine the transaction price. The transaction price is the amount of consideration to which an entity expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring promised goods or services to a customer, excluding amounts collected on behalf of third parties (taxes collected on behalf of Government etc.) .

Interest income is recognized using effective interest method. Dividend income is recognized at the time when the right to receive is established by the reporting date. Other incomes have been recognized on accrual basis in the financial statements, except when there is uncertainty of collection. Foreign currency gain or loss is reported on net basis and includes gain or loss in respect of concluded forward contracts.

Export Incentive:

Export benefits in the nature of focus market scheme are accrued in the year of exports based on the eligibility taking into consideration the prevailing regulations/policies and when there is no uncertainty in receiving the same. Adjustments, if any,

All amounts are in ₹ Lakh unless otherwise stated to the amounts recognized in accordance with the accounting policy, based on final determination by the authorities, would be dealt with appropriately in the year of final determination and acceptance.

2.5 Foreign currencies:

In preparing the financial statements of the Group, transactions in currencies other than the entity's functional currency (foreign currencies) are recognized at the rates of exchange prevailing at the dates of the transactions. At the end of each reporting period, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at that date.

Non-monetary items carried at fair value that are denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at the date when the fair value was determined. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

Exchange differences on monetary items are recognized in profit or loss in the period in which they arise except for exchange differences on transactions entered into in order to hedge certain foreign currency risks, which are recognised in Other comprehensive income and later to statement of profit and loss.

2.6 Borrowing costs:

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets, until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale.

Interest income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalization.

All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

2.7 Employee benefits

Employee benefits include provident fund, employee state insurance scheme, gratuity fund and compensated absences.

a) Defined contribution plans

The Group's contribution to provident fund and employee state insurance scheme are considered as defined contribution plans and are recognized as an expense when employees have rendered service entitling them to the contributions.

With regard to PF contribution made by the group to a Government administered fund and charged as an expense to the Statement of Profit and Loss. The above benefits are classified as Defined Contribution Schemes as the Group has no further defined obligations beyond the monthly contributions.

b) Defined benefit plans

For defined benefit plans in the form of gratuity fund, the cost of providing benefits is determined using the projected unit credit method, with actuarial valuations being carried out by an independent actuary at the end of each reporting period. Defined benefit costs are categorized as follows:

- Service cost (including current service cost, past service cost, as well as gains and losses on curtailments and settlements);
- Net interest expense or income; and
- Re-measurement

The Group presents the first two components of defined benefit costs in profit or loss in the line item 'Employee benefits expense'. Net interest is calculated by applying the discount rate at the beginning of the period to the net defined benefit liability or asset. Re-measurement, comprising actuarial gains and losses, the effect of the changes to the asset ceiling (if applicable) and the return on plan assets (excluding net interest), is reflected immediately in the balance sheet with a charge or credit recognized in other comprehensive income in the period in which they occur. Re-measurement recognized in other comprehensive income is reflected immediately in retained earnings and is not reclassified to profit or loss. Curtailment gains and losses are accounted for as past service costs. Past service cost is recognized in profit or loss in the period of a plan amendment.

The obligation recognized in the balance sheet represents the actual deficit or surplus in the Group's defined benefit plans. Any surplus resulting from this calculation is limited to the present value of any economic benefits available in the form of refunds from the plans or reductions in future contributions to the plans.

All amounts are in ₹ Lakh unless otherwise stated

c) Short-term employee benefits:

Short term employee benefits including accumulated compensated absences as at the Balance Sheet date are recognized as an expense as per Group's schemes based on expected obligation on an undiscounted basis.

d) Other long-term employee benefits:

Other Long term employee benefit comprise of leave encashment which is provided for based on the actuarial valuation carried out as at the end of the year.

Liabilities recognized in respect of other long-term employee benefits are measured at the present value of the estimated future cash outflows expected to be made by the Group in respect of services provided by employees up to the reporting date.

2.8 Earnings per share:

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing the profit/ (loss) attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing the profit / (loss) attributable to equity shareholders as adjusted for dividend, interest and other charges to expense or income relating to the dilutive potential equity shares, by the weighted average number of equity shares considered for deriving basic earnings per share and the weighted average number of equity shares which could have been issued on the conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares. Potential equity shares are deemed to be dilutive only if their conversion to equity shares would decrease the net profit per share from continuing ordinary operations.

2.9 Taxes on Income:

Income tax expense comprises current and deferred taxes. Income tax expense is recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss except to the extent it relates to items recognized directly in equity, in which case it is recognized in equity.

• Current tax

Current tax is determined as the amount of tax payable in respect of taxable income for the year as determined in accordance with the applicable tax rates and the provisions of the Income-tax Act, 1961.

Current tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity)..

The Group offsets current tax assets and current tax liabilities, where it has a legally enforceable right to set off the recognized amounts and where it intends either to settle on a net basis or to realise the assets and settle the liability simultaneously.

• Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognized on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognized for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognized for all deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences and tax losses can be utilized. Such deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognized if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit. Deferred tax assets include unused tax credits.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax liabilities and assets are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset realized, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax relating to items recognised outside the Statement of Profit and Loss is recognised outside Statement of Profit and Loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity).

Deferred income taxes are not recognized on undistributed earnings of subsidiaries where it is expected that earnings of subsidiaries will not be distributed in the foreseeable future.

- Current and deferred tax for the year

Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

2.10 Property, plant and equipment and Capital Work-in-progress

A. Owned Assets

Property, plant and equipment are stated in the Balance Sheet at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Cost includes purchase price, attributable expenditure incurred in bringing the asset to its working condition for the intended use and cost of borrowing till the date of capitalization in the case of assets involving material investment and substantial lead time.

Properties in the course of construction for production, supply or administrative purposes are carried at cost, less any recognized impairment loss. Depreciation of these assets, on the same basis as other property assets, commences when the assets are ready for their intended use.

Items such as spare parts, stand-by equipment and servicing equipment that meet the definition of property, plant and equipment are capitalized at cost and depreciated over their useful life. Costs in nature of repairs and maintenance are recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss as and when incurred. Subsequent expenditures relating to property, plant and equipment is capitalized only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with these will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably

Cost of assets not ready for intended use, as on the Balance Sheet date, is shown as capital work in progress. Advances given towards acquisition of fixed assets outstanding at each Balance Sheet date are disclosed as Other Non-Current Assets.

Depreciation is provided on the straight-line method as per the useful life prescribed in Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013 except in respect of following categories of assets in whose case the life of certain assets has been assessed based on technical advice taking into account the nature of the asset, the estimated usage of the asset, the operating condition of the asset, past history of replacement, maintenance support etc.

- i) Plant and Machinery - 5-25 years
- ii) Office Equipment - 3 years
- iii) Furniture & Fixtures - 5 years
- iv) Vehicles - 5 years

Each major part of property, plant and equipment with a cost that is significant in relation to its total cost of the item is depreciated separately.

The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis. Land is not depreciated.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognized in the statement of profit or loss.

B. Leased Assets

The Group lease asset classes primarily consist of leases for Land and Buildings and Plant & Machinery. The Group assesses whether a contract is or contains a lease, at inception of a contract. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. To assess whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset, the Group assesses whether:

- (i) the contract involves the use of an identified asset
- (ii) the Group has substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the asset through the period of the lease and
- (iii) the Group has the right to direct the use of the asset.

All amounts are in ₹ Lakh unless otherwise stated

At the date of commencement of the lease, the Group recognises a right-of-use asset ("ROU") and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of twelve months or less (short-term leases) and leases of low value assets. For these short-term and leases of low value assets, the Group recognises the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

The right-of-use assets are initially recognised at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or prior to the commencement

Lease liability and ROU asset have been separately presented in the Balance Sheet and lease payments have been classified as financing cash flows

C. Capital work-in-progress

Capital work-in-progress comprises of property, plant and equipment that are not ready for their intended use at the end of reporting period and are carried at cost comprising direct costs, related incidental expenses, other directly attributable costs and borrowing costs.

Temporarily suspended projects do not include those projects where temporary suspension is a necessary part of the process of getting an asset ready for its intended use.

2.11 Investment Property:

Investment property represents property held to earn rentals or for capital appreciation or both.

Investment property are measured initially at cost, including transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, investment properties are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment loss, if any. The cost includes the cost of replacing parts and borrowing costs for long-term construction projects if the recognition criteria are met. When significant parts of the investment property are required to be replaced at intervals, the group depreciates them separately based on their specific useful lives. All other repair and maintenance costs are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss as incurred.

Though the Group measures investment property using cost based measurement, the fair value of investment property is disclosed in the notes. The best evidence of fair value is current prices in an active market for similar properties. The market rate for sale/purchase of such premises are representative of fair values. Group investment properties are at a location where active market is available for similar kind of properties. Hence, fair value is ascertained on the basis of market rates prevailing for similar properties in those location.

Pursuant to transition to Ind AS, the Group has elected to continue with the carrying value of all of its Investment Properties as per the previous GAAP as its deemed cost on the transition date.

Investment properties are derecognised either when they have been disposed of or when they are permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefit is expected from their disposal. The difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the period of derecognition.

2.12 Intangible Assets:

a) Measurement at recognition:

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. Intangible assets arising on acquisition of business are measured at fair value as at date of acquisition. Research costs are not capitalized and the related expenditure is recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the period in which the expenditure is incurred. Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment loss, if any.

b) Amortization:

Intangible assets with finite useful life are amortized over their respective individual estimated useful lives on a straight-line basis, from the date that they are available for use. An intangible asset with an indefinite useful life is not amortized.

The amortization period and the amortization method for intangible assets are reviewed at the end of each financial year. If any of these expectations differ from previous estimates, such change is accounted for as a change in an accounting estimate.

All amounts are in ₹ Lakh unless otherwise stated

c) Derecognition:

The carrying amount of an intangible asset is derecognized on disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. The gain or loss arising from the Derecognition of an intangible asset is measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the intangible asset and is recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss when the asset is derecognized.

2.13 Impairment of assets:

The Group assesses at each reporting date whether there is an indication that an asset/cash generating unit may be impaired. If any indication exists the Group estimates the recoverable amount of such assets and if carrying amount exceeds the recoverable amount, impairment is recognized. The recoverable amount is the higher of the fair value less its cost of disposal and its value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using an appropriate pre-tax discount factor.

Investments in subsidiaries and associates are reviewed for impairment if there is an indication that carrying amount may not be recoverable.

Impairment losses, if any, are recognized in the statement of profit and loss and included in the depreciation and amortization expense. When there is indication that previously recognized impairment loss no longer exists or may have decreased due to change in estimates used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognized such reversal of impairment loss is recognized in the statement of profit or loss. The increased carrying amount of an asset attributable to a reversal of an impairment loss does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of amortization or depreciation) had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset in prior years.

2.14 Inventories:

Raw materials and other inventories are valued at lower of cost and net realizable value. However, materials and other items held for use in production of inventories are not written down below cost if the finished goods in which they will be incorporated are expected to be sold at or above cost. Net realizable value represents the estimated selling price of inventories less all estimated costs of completion and costs necessary to make the sale.

The method of determination of cost of various categories of inventories is as follows:

- Raw material, Stores and spares – Weighted average cost.
- Finished goods and Work-in-process – Weighted average cost of production which comprises of direct material costs, direct wages and applicable overheads.
- Stock-in-trade – Weighted average cost

Cost of inventory comprises all costs of purchase, duties, taxes (other than those subsequently recoverable from tax authorities) and all other costs incurred in bringing the inventory to their present location and condition. Cost of finished goods and work-in-progress includes the cost of raw materials, packing materials, an appropriate share of fixed and variable production overheads and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition'.

Fixed overheads are allocated on the basis of normal production facilities.

Goods in transit are stated at actual cost incurred up to the reporting date.

2.15 Exceptional item:

Significant gains/losses or expenses incurred arising from external events that is not expected to recur are disclosed as 'Exceptional item'.

2.16 Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets:

Provisions are recognized only when there is a present obligation (legal and constructive) as a result of past events and when a reasonable estimate of the amount of obligation can be made. The amount recognized as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. When a provision is measured using the cash flows estimated to settle the present obligation, its carrying amount is the present value of those cash flows (when the effect of the time value of money is material).

All amounts are in ₹ Lakh unless otherwise stated

Contingent liabilities are disclosed for (i) possible obligation which will be confirmed only by future events not wholly within the control of the Group or (ii) present obligations arising from past events where it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation or a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation cannot be made.

When there is a possible obligation or a present obligation in respect of which likelihood of outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.

Contingent assets are not recognized. It is disclosed only when the inflow of economic benefits is probable.

2.17 Financial instruments:

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognized when the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are recognized immediately in profit or loss.

2.18 Financial assets:

All regular way purchases or sales of financial assets are recognized and derecognized on a trade date basis. Regular way purchases or sales are purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the time frame established by regulation or convention in the marketplace.

All recognized financial assets are subsequently measured in their entirety at either amortized cost or fair value, depending on the classification of the financial assets.

2.19 Classification of financial assets:

Debt instruments that meet the following conditions are subsequently measured at amortized cost (except for debt instruments that are designated as at fair value through profit or loss on initial recognition):

- the asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets in order to collect contractual cash flows; and
- the contractual terms of the instrument give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Debt instruments that meet the following conditions are subsequently measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (except for debt instruments that are designated as at fair value through profit or loss on initial recognition):

- the asset is held within a business model whose objective is achieved both by collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets; and
- the contractual terms of the instrument give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Interest income is recognized in profit or loss for Fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI) debt instruments. For the purposes of recognizing foreign exchange gains and losses, FVTOCI debt instruments are treated as financial assets measured at amortized cost. Thus, the exchange differences on the amortized cost are recognized in profit or loss and other changes in the fair value of FVTOCI financial assets are recognized in other comprehensive income and accumulated under the heading of 'Reserve for debt instruments through other comprehensive income'. When the investment is disposed of, the cumulative gain or loss previously accumulated in this reserve is reclassified to profit or loss.

All other financial assets are subsequently measured at fair value.

All amounts are in ₹ Lakh unless otherwise stated

2.20 Assets held for sale:

Non-current assets or disposal groups comprising of assets and liabilities are classified as 'held for sale' when all the following criteria are met: (i) decision has been made to sell, (ii) the assets are available for immediate sale in its present condition, (iii) the assets are being actively marketed and (iv) sale has been agreed or is expected to be concluded within 12 months of the Balance Sheet date.

Subsequently, such non-current assets and disposal groups classified as 'held for sale' are measured at the lower of its carrying value and fair value less costs to sell. Non-current assets held for sale are not depreciated or amortised.

2.21 Effective interest method:

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortized cost of a debt instrument and of allocating interest income over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts (including all fees and points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the debt instrument, or, where appropriate, a shorter period, to the net carrying amount on initial recognition.

Income is recognized on an effective interest basis for debt instruments other than those financial assets classified as at FVTPL. Interest income is recognized in profit or loss and is included in the "Other income" line item.

2.22 Investments in Subsidiaries, Associates and Joint Ventures:

Investments in Subsidiaries, Associates and Joint Ventures are carried at cost less accumulated impairment losses, if any. Where an indication of impairment exists, the carrying amount of the investment is assessed and written down immediately to its recoverable amount. On disposal of investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint venture, the difference between net disposal proceeds and the carrying amounts are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

2.23 Investments in equity instruments at FVTOCI

On initial recognition, the Group can make an irrevocable election (on an instrument-by-instrument basis) to present the subsequent changes in fair value in other comprehensive income pertaining to investments in equity instruments. This election is not permitted if the equity investment is held for trading. These elected investments are initially measured at fair value plus transaction costs. Subsequently, they are measured at fair value with gains and losses arising from changes in fair value recognized in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the 'Reserve for equity instruments through other comprehensive income'. The cumulative gain or loss is not reclassified to profit or loss on disposal of the investments.

A financial asset is held for trading if:

- it has been acquired principally for the purpose of selling it in the near term; or
- on initial recognition it is part of a portfolio of identified financial instruments that the Group manages together and has a recent actual pattern of short-term profit-taking; or
- it is a derivative that is not designated and effective as a hedging instrument or a financial guarantee.

Dividends on these investments in equity instruments are recognized in profit or loss when the Group's right to receive the dividends is established, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the entity, the dividend does not represent a recovery of part of cost of the investment and the amount of dividend can be measured reliably. Dividends recognized in profit or loss are included in the 'Other income' line item.

2.24 Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL):

Investments in equity instruments are classified as at FVTPL, unless the Group irrevocably elects on initial recognition to present subsequent changes in fair value in other comprehensive income for investments in equity instruments which are not held for trading.

Debt instruments that do not meet the amortized cost criteria or FVTOCI criteria are measured at FVTPL. In addition, debt instruments that meet the amortized cost criteria or the FVTOCI criteria but are designated as at FVTPL are measured at FVTPL.

A financial asset that meets the amortized cost criteria or debt instruments that meet the FVTOCI criteria may be designated as at FVTPL upon initial recognition if such designation eliminates or significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency that would arise from measuring assets or liabilities or recognizing the gains and losses on them on different bases. The Group has not designated any debt instrument as at FVTPL.

All amounts are in ₹ Lakh unless otherwise stated

Financial assets at FVTPL are measured at fair value at the end of each reporting period, with any gains or losses arising on remeasurement recognized in profit or loss. The net gain or loss recognized in profit or loss incorporates any dividend or interest earned on the financial asset and is included in the 'Other income' line item. Dividend on financial assets at FVTPL is recognized when the Group's right to receive the dividends is established, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the entity, the dividend does not represent a recovery of part of cost of the investment and the amount of dividend can be measured reliably.

2.25 Impairment of financial assets:

The Group applies the expected credit loss model for recognizing impairment loss on financial assets measured at amortized cost, trade receivables, and other contractual rights to receive cash or other financial asset, and financial guarantees not designated as at FVTPL.

Expected credit losses are the weighted average of credit losses with the respective risks of default occurring as the weights. Credit loss is the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Group in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive (i.e. all cash shortfalls), discounted at the original effective interest rate (or credit-adjusted effective interest rate for purchased or originated credit-impaired financial assets). The Group estimates cash flows by considering all contractual terms of the financial instrument through the expected life of that financial instrument.

The Group measures the loss allowance for a financial instrument at an amount equal to the lifetime expected credit losses if the credit risk on that financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition. If the credit risk on a financial instrument has not increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group measures the loss allowance for that financial instrument at an amount equal to 12-month expected credit losses. 12-month expected credit losses are portion of the lifetime expected credit losses and represent the lifetime cash shortfalls that will result if default occurs within the 12 months after the reporting date and thus, are not cash shortfalls that are predicted over the next 12 months.

If the Group measured loss allowance for a financial instrument at lifetime expected credit loss model in the previous period, but determines at the end of a reporting period that the credit risk has not increased significantly since initial recognition due to improvement in credit quality as compared to the previous period, the Group again measures the loss allowance based on 12-month expected credit losses.

When making the assessment of whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, the Group uses the change in the risk of a default occurring over the expected life of the financial instrument instead of the change in the amount of expected credit losses. To make that assessment, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition and considers reasonable and supportable information, that is available without undue cost or effort, that is indicative of significant increases in credit risk since initial recognition.

For trade receivables or any contractual right to receive cash or another financial asset that result from transactions that are within the scope of Ind AS 11 and Ind AS 18, the Group always measures the loss allowance at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit losses.

Further, for the purpose of measuring lifetime expected credit loss allowance for trade receivables, the Group has used a practical expedient as permitted under Ind AS 109. This expected credit loss allowance is computed based on a provision matrix which takes into account historical credit loss experience and adjusted for forward-looking information.

The impairment requirements for the recognition and measurement of a loss allowance are equally applied to debt instruments at FVTOCI except that the loss allowance is recognized in other comprehensive income and is not reduced from the carrying amount in the balance sheet.

2.26 Derecognition of financial assets:

The Group derecognizes a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another party. If the Group neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership and continues to control the transferred asset, the Group recognizes its retained interest in the asset and an associated liability for amounts it may have to pay. If the Group retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a transferred financial asset, the Group continues to recognize the financial asset and also recognizes a collateralized borrowing for the proceeds received.

On derecognition of a financial asset in its entirety, the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and receivable and the cumulative gain or loss that had been recognized in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity is recognized in profit or loss if such gain or loss would have otherwise been recognized in profit or loss on disposal of that financial asset.

All amounts are in ₹ Lakh unless otherwise stated

On derecognition of a financial asset other than in its entirety, the Group allocates the previous carrying amount of the financial asset between the part it continues to recognize under continuing involvement, and the part it no longer recognizes on the basis of the relative fair values of those parts on the date of the transfer. The difference between the carrying amount allocated to the part that is no longer recognized and the sum of the consideration received for the part no longer recognized and any cumulative gain or loss allocated to it that had been recognized in other comprehensive income is recognized in profit or loss if such gain or loss would have otherwise been recognized in profit or loss on disposal of that financial asset.

A cumulative gain or loss that had been recognized in other comprehensive income is allocated between the part that continues to be recognized and the part that is no longer recognized on the basis of the relative fair values of those parts.

2.27 Foreign exchange gains and losses:

The fair value of financial assets denominated in a foreign currency is determined in that foreign currency and translated at the spot rate at the end of each reporting period.

- For foreign currency denominated financial assets measured at amortized cost and FVTPL, the exchange differences are recognized in profit or loss except for those which are designated as hedging instruments in a hedging relationship.
- Changes in the carrying amount of investments in equity instruments at FVTOCI relating to changes in foreign currency rates are recognized in other comprehensive income.

For the purposes of recognizing foreign exchange gains and losses, FVTOCI debt instruments are treated as financial assets measured at amortized cost. Thus, the exchange differences on the amortized cost are recognized in profit or loss and other changes in the fair value of FVTOCI financial assets are recognized in other comprehensive income.²

2.28 Financial liabilities and equity instruments:

a. Classification as debt or equity

Debt and equity instruments issued by the Group are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

b. Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the Group are recognized at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Repurchase of the Group's own equity instruments is recognized and deducted directly in equity. No gain or loss is recognized in profit or loss on the purchase, sale, issue or cancellation of the Group's own equity instruments.

c. Financial liabilities

All financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method or at FVTPL.

However, financial liabilities that arise when a transfer of a financial asset does not qualify for derecognition or when the continuing involvement approach applies, financial guarantee contracts issued by the Group, and commitments issued by the Group to provide a loan at below-market interest rate are measured in accordance with the specific accounting policies set out below.

d. Financial liabilities at FVTPL

Financial liabilities are classified as at FVTPL when the financial liability is either contingent consideration recognized by the Group as an acquirer in a business combination to which Ind AS 103 applies or is held for trading or it is designated as at FVTPL.

A financial liability is classified as held for trading if:

- it has been incurred principally for the purpose of repurchasing it in the near term; or
- on initial recognition it is part of a portfolio of identified financial instruments that the Group manages together and has a recent actual pattern of short-term profit-taking; or
- It is a derivative that is not designated and effective as a hedging instrument.

All amounts are in ₹ Lakh unless otherwise stated

A financial liability other than a financial liability held for trading or contingent consideration recognized by the Group as an acquirer in a business combination to which Ind AS 103 applies, may be designated as at FVTPL upon initial recognition if:

- such designation eliminates or significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency that would otherwise arise;
- the financial liability forms part of group of financial assets or financial liabilities or both, which is managed and its performance is evaluated on a fair value basis, in accordance with the Group's documented risk management or investment strategy, and information about the grouping is provided internally on that basis; or
- It forms part of a contract containing one or more embedded derivatives, and Ind AS 109 permits the entire combined contract to be designated as at FVTPL in accordance with Ind AS 109.

Financial liabilities at FVTPL are stated at fair value, with any gains or losses arising on remeasurement recognized in profit or loss. The net gain or loss recognized in profit or loss incorporates any interest paid on the financial liability and is included in the 'Other income' line item.

However, for non-held-for-trading financial liabilities that are designated as at FVTPL, the amount of change in the fair value of the financial liability that is attributable to changes in the credit risk of that liability is recognized in other comprehensive income, unless the recognition of the effects of changes in the liability's credit risk in other comprehensive income would create or enlarge an accounting mismatch in profit or loss, in which case these effects of changes in credit risk are recognized in profit or loss. The remaining amount of change in the fair value of liability is always recognized in profit or loss. Changes in fair value attributable to a financial liability's credit risk that are recognized in other comprehensive income are reflected immediately in retained earnings and are not subsequently reclassified to profit or loss.

Gains or losses on financial guarantee contracts and loan commitments issued by the Group that are designated by the Group as at fair value through profit or loss are recognized in profit or loss.

e. Financial liabilities subsequently measured at amortized cost

Financial liabilities that are not held-for-trading and are not designated as at FVTPL are measured at amortized cost at the end of subsequent accounting periods. The carrying amounts of financial liabilities that are subsequently measured at amortized cost are determined based on the effective interest method. Interest expense that is not capitalized as part of costs of an asset is included in the 'Finance costs' line item.

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortized cost of a financial liability and of allocating interest expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash payments (including all fees and points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the financial liability, or (where appropriate) a shorter period, to the net carrying amount on initial recognition.

f. Foreign exchange gains and losses

For financial liabilities that are denominated in a foreign currency and are measured at amortized cost at the end of each reporting period, the foreign exchange gains and losses are determined based on the amortized cost of the instruments and are recognized in 'Other income'.

The fair value of financial liabilities denominated in a foreign currency is determined in that foreign currency and translated at the spot rate at the end of the reporting period. For financial liabilities that are measured as at FVTPL, the foreign exchange component forms part of the fair value gains or losses and is recognized in profit or loss.

g. De-recognition of financial liabilities

The Group derecognizes financial liabilities when, and only when, the Group's obligations are discharged, cancelled or have expired. An exchange between with a lender of debt instruments with substantially different terms is accounted for as an extinguishment of the original financial liability and the recognition of a new financial liability. Similarly, a substantial modification of the terms of an existing financial liability (whether or not attributable to the financial difficulty of the debtor) is accounted for as an extinguishment of the original financial liability and the recognition of a new financial liability. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognized and the consideration paid and payable is recognized in profit or loss.

K. Risk Exposure

(A) Liability Risks

(i) Asset-Liability Mismatch Risk

Risk if there is a mismatch in the duration of the assets relative to the liabilities. By matching duration with the defined benefit liabilities, the Parent Company is successfully able to neutralize valuation swings caused by interest rate movements. Hence the Parent Company is encouraged to adopt asset-liability management.

(ii) Discount Rate Risk

Variations in the discount rate used to compute the present value of the liabilities may seem small, but in practice can have a significant impact on the defined benefit liabilities.

(iii) Future Salary Escalation and Inflation Risk

Since price inflation and salary growth are linked economically, they are combined for disclosure purposes. Rising salaries will often result in higher future defined benefit payments resulting in a higher present value of liabilities especially unexpected salary increases provided at management's discretion may lead to estimation uncertainties increasing this risk.

(B) Unfunded Plan Risk

This represents unmanaged risk and a growing liability. There is an inherent risk here that the company may default on paying the benefits in adverse circumstances. Funding the plan removes volatility from the balance sheet and better manages defined benefit risk through increased returns.

35. Contingent Liabilities and commitments (to the extent not provided for) (Ind AS 37)

	As at 31 st March, 2026	As at 31 st March, 2025

Demands disputed by the Group and appeals filed against these disputed demands are pending before respective appellate authorities. Outflows, if any, arising out of these claims would depend on the outcome of the decision of the appellate authorities and the Group's rights for future appeals.

TANGEDCO's response to the Company's representation for withdrawal of the above said demand for reasons stated above is awaited.

C. Lease arrangements with the Government of Tamilnadu

The agreement entered with the Government of Tamilnadu in respect of leasehold land on which Propylene Oxide plant is operating expired on 12th June 2020. Application for renewal of the lease for further period has been filed with the relevant authorities. In the meanwhile, the Parent Company received a demand for payment of arrears of lease rent for the period 1st July 1990- 30th June 2020 to the tune of ₹ 9,224.33 lakhs from the Vattachiyer, Tiruvottiyur. Despite representation made by the Parent Company in this regard, in the absence of any response from the authorities as to the basis on which the above demand was raised, the management is of the view that the demand is arbitrary and devoid of any merit. the Parent Company continues to make payment of the lease rent at contracted rates as per the earlier agreement with Government of Tamilnadu, in terms of the extant Government guidelines for lease of land for industrial purposes. Pending execution of the renewed lease agreement from 13th June 2020, the Parent Company has recognised Right of use of Assets (ROUA) on the indicative increase in lease rentals for a period of 30 years.
